Notices.

The Annual District Meeting of Wesevan Ministers, in the Province of N. Brunswick, will commence their sittings, at Woodstock, on Thursday the 27th inst. It is advisable that the Brethren who intend to pass through the City of St. John, should be in readiness to take the Tuesday boat, from Indian Town.

R. KNIGHT. St John, N. B., May 7, 1852.

We take the following items of news from our Newfoundland exchanges:-

Great anxiety had been felt at Harbour Grace, owing to reports in reference to the crews of a number of wrecked vessels, said to have been left on the Wadhams without food or shelter, during the disastrous gales of the 4th and 10th of April. The greater parts of those unfortunate persons are, in the mean time, reported to have been rescued.

All reports agree, says the St. John's New foundlander, that, but for the heavy weather which has caused such destruction among the vessels, this spring's catch of seals would be one of the largest ever known. Even as it is, we understand that the average catch at this time is equal to that of last year.

No. 5 of The Provincial Magazine has been received. The Press of this Province, and of Canada and New Brunswick, speak favourably of its literary character and mechanical appear-

We are pleased to hear from the Rev. F.W. Moone, that Windsor Circuit will probably meet the average number for Vol. IV.

The Rev. R: Monton, Lunenburg, has our thanks for his efforts to raise the average number on his Circuit.

We thank the Rev. M. PICKLES for the encouragement he affords in his recent note.

The other brethren, who have sent on the names of new subscribers, will receive our thanks for the interest they manifest in the circulation of the Wesleyan.

We have placed 2s. 6d. to the credit of Mr. Wm. Johnstone, Liverpool.

Deaths.

On Friday morning, the 7th inst, JOHN STILLMAN, an industrious and healthy young man, who had just passed his 24th year. While engaged in fishing on the Creek side below the Aboiteau, between Amherst and New Brunswick, he fell into the water and was drowned. His companion on the opposite side heard the splash, and saw his arm rise a little above the water; but though every effort that sympathy could saggest was used, his body has not yet been restored to his deeply afflicted parents. He was a man against whom none could complain; but in a moment has he been called upon to give an account of his stewardship. His death should be a call upon all who may hear, to prepare to meet their God.
In midst of life in death we are,

O then take warning and prepare, Before your endless doom is sealed; Christ sends you now an earnest call, And offers grace and life to all, The wounded may be healed. Afflicted parents, mourn no moy

You soon shall reach the happy shore, Where all our troubles end; O look in this afflicted hour,

To Him who has the will and power, To be the sufferer's friend. - Communicated from Amherst.
