THE KING AND PEOPLE OF FIJI : conuning a life of Thakombun, with notices of the Finns, their manners, custums and superstihas, previous to the great religious reformation a 1854. By the Rev. Jos. Waterhouse, fourten years a Missionary in Fiji : Published athe Wesleyan Conference Office, London." This narrative will be read with profit by many who take an interest in the manners and customs of those lands which are the scenes of self-sacrificing Missionary toil. The wenderful triumphs of divine grace among the degraded savages of Fiji, will long render that group of islands memorable in the christian world.

THE CENTENARY OF AMERICAN METHODISM by the Rev. Abel Stevens, L.L.D. Carlton & Porter, New York. To those who have read the previous volumes of this historian of Methodism. no recommendation of this book is needed; they will surely order it. It is just the book for the times, and we hope to see it widely circulated. Dr. Stevens ably discusses the following themes: ... What is Methodism? The Question Hissnically Answered. II. What has Methodism Achieved Entitling it to the Proposed Commemeration? HI. Its Capabilities and Responsibilities for the Future.

This splendid Machine combines all the good qualities of our well known manufacturing ma-chines, with many new and valuable improvements. It is swift, quiet, and positive in its operation; sews the very finest and coarses tremes, in a beautiful and substantial manner. A man named Joseph Brown had a leg broken by the falling of a brick wall, and several others were slightly bruised. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $250,000.—

Every Machine warranted, and full instructions given. Send for pamphlet to H. A. TAYLOR, Agent.
