majority of the Liberal candidates for Eastern Ontario in conference here today passed a resolution endorsing the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. They are determined to make a fight against Unionist candidates on straight party lines. Other Liberal candidates have expressed a determination to run as supporters of the Union government. In the capital it looks like a party fight with Messrs. Frigg and Chabot, the former Conservative members, running as win-the-war candidates and receiving the support of a number of Liberals. Owing largely to a big French and Irish vote in the capital the fight promises to be close and quite spectacular. The eyes of the politicians at the capital are also turned to the West.

Contradictory reports have been received from all the four provinces west of the great lakes and the political line-up as the fight develops will be watched with much interest. Unionists confidently predict that there will be a sweep favoring the new government, while Liberals appear to be equally certain that straight supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier will carry a considerable proportion of the seats. A not uninteresting feature of the situation is the opposition to Union by a group of hard shell Ontario Conservatives, including Sir Sam Hughes, ex-minister of militia, Col. J. A. Currie, former member for North Simcoe, H. B. Morphy, who has represented North Perth since 1911, and others. These men are convinced that Sir Robert Borden should have had nothing to do with Union and that the step he has taken will eventually place the party in opposition.

There has been a slight gain in demand for the any such sale. Barley prices are considerable. Export Co. 6. As advised November 1.
