AND LITERATURE IN CANADA

are critics who say that there is no literary union in Canada, no literary movement, given recently by the publishers of the Canadian. Mr. Hall Caine, the great English novelist, has recently published a book, The Rover, which has made a great advance in the cause of literature in Canada. His statement, however, is with regard to Canadian literature, which has a large circulation in the newspaper of the United States. The Christmas Number, which will be issued in December, is the eighth in a series of art numbers. It will be accompanied this year by five splendid colored supplements; the largest, a reproduction of a painting by a Canadian artist, done specially for Saturday Night, is 24 x 33 inches in size. Its title is "Champlain the Explorer," and depicts the mouth of a flotilla of war canoes entering the mouth of a river on Lake Huron. The picture has been praised by the Historical Association as the most interesting and valuable attempt ever made to carry us back to the old days when Canada was a geographical term. The pictures are done in sixteen colors. The book itself, consisting of 100 pages, contains the four prize drawings of the Night competition.
