Dorando the Italian, who finished rst in the Marsihon, is thus quoted by the London Daily News: "I should like to make it clear that my surname is not Dorando. It is the Italian custom to rut the surname first and the baptismal name afterwards; thus, according to the English fashion my name is Dorando Pietri. But I do not mind the mistake which everyone als made, for it is pleasant to have everyone call you by our Christian name; it makes me feel that you are all my friends: it makes of the district, and they certainly got me feel that I love you all with the warmth of my heart.

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Aug. 26 .-That the spert of kings has lost none of its drawing power in this section was amply proven by the great crowds that filled the grand stand and enclosures of the Union Driving Park oday. The first day of New Glasgow's class did not fill and was declared off. big race meet was certainly a suc every way. One thousand five hundred people, witnessed the racing; the reather conditions and track were perfect and the grand stands were crowded with the beauty and sporting talent their money's worth in the splendid fields that faced the starter's bell in both classes. The drivers were delignted with the track and were unanimous in the opinion that it was the fastest rack raced on this season. The arrangements for conveying passenger verything passed off without a hitch, reflecting great credit on Spurgeon who promoted this meet. Buchanan's win in the 2.17 trot, and 2.20 pace was an exceedingly popular when I had done my work of the day, one, as he was bred here and received but I have never dieted myself. My his early education in racing harness Buchanan took first money, Estill Boy of the Springhill stables second, Mabel T. of Charlottetown third, while fourth money was divided between Sleepy Jack and Otto Oaks, they being equal in the summary

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 21. -An arrest which may lead to divorce proceedings involving a well known local family was made last night when Minnie Lefrance, a local girl with unsavory reputation, was nabbed by the police when at a late hour she came from the house of a well known citizen whose wife is absent. The lady in several times complained to the police that her 'nurband was keeping company with this girl, and the police have kept strict watch upon her, with the result that last night she was arrested. Before Magistrate Kay this morning she was given a severe lecturing and allowed to go.
