MORNING FIRE SPREADS OVER

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 13 .- Fire, which broke out at 11 o'clock this morning in the Palmer building, a fourstory brick structure, devoted to manufacturing interests at Main and Gibbs street, was the starting point of a $500,000 conflagration in Rochester to day. The fire spread over a wide area, at one point jumping nearly a mile and starting a second series of fires of such oportions that the local fire departent was for a time unable to cope with the situation.

Aid was summoned from Buffalo and Syracuse, and both of these cities rushed companies to Rochester. time they arrived. local firemen were masters in both fire areas. The outside companies were eld on reserve duty in the centre of the city, every Rochester company having been called out by the long series

ORIGIN A MYSTERY.

The origin of the fire has not been determined. It was seen first from outside the Palmer building, sweeping acros the third story, half of which was vacant. There was delay in sounding the alarm and when it came the firemen were busy with a small blaze at State street. Ten minutes more clapsed, it is said, before the firenen arrived and in that time the flames had spread from cellar to garret of the Palmer building. A twenty-five ile gale sent the sparks in a northesterly direction over the city. On the second floor of the Palmer ilding many girls were employed. Their escape was shut off on the stairways and the elevator shaft was a raging furnace, but the girls came down the fire escapes in good order

Choral Service at the Cathedral -- Many Guests From St. John Were Present at the Ceremony.

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 14. At Christ Church Cathedral this afterneon Miss Lenore Carleton Allen, daughter of T. Carleton Allen, clerk of the pleas, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Alexander John Thompon, son of Hon. Senator Thompson.

The ceremony, which was fully choral, was performed by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, assisted by the Very Rev. Dean Schofield. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Leroy Shaw, of Montreal, performed the duties of best man, Miss Edith Edgecombe was maid of honor, and Miss Katle Hazen, daughter of the premier, bridesmaid. The ushers were Ralph Sherman, Robt. McCunn and Fred Barbour.

The Cathedral was prettily decorated and as the bridal party entered the church the organist played he nuptial march. The hymns consisted of "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and "Love Divine."

The bride was dressed in Liberty satin, in the empire style trimmed with Brussels lace, and wore a bridal veil and crange blossoms. The bridesmaid and maid of honor wore yellow satin directoire gowns with yellow and gold trimmings and fringe and hats to match ,and carried bouquets of violets. Mrs. Allen, mother of the bride, was costumed in a brown princess gown of satin, with hat to match.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party was received at the handsome residence of Mr. Allen. The reception rooms were very prettily decorated, the bride's table being overhung with a floral bell of white. After the reception bridal luncheon was served. The bride's presents were numerous.

The groom's gift was a turquoise ring encircled with diamonds and to her attendants card cases with their monograms. To the groomsman the groom gave a handsome leather hat box. Guests from outside of the city included; Mr. R. A. and Mrs. Snowball, Miss Motherwell, Miss Newman, Chief Justice and Mrs. Barker, Prem-
