Boys Astray Had Hard Time

The two boys, J. Daley, son of Mr. Lawrence Daley, M.M.C.; and J. Callahan, son of Mr. J. Callahan, of Callahan & Glass, who went astray on the South Side Hills, Sunday, suffered very much in the cold boisterous weather of Sunday night. They went up on the hills at 4 p.m. to see the "trenches" made by the soldiers, wandered about picking berries until dusk overtook them, could not find the road and wandered over the hills until it became quite dark and they could go no further. They imagined they were walking citywards but instead they were going towards Freshwater Bay. At the Daley lad's suggestion they lay down in the thicket woods they could find and keeping close together they were afforded some warmth. They slept little and shivered with the cold all night. At daybreak they wandered off again and in a couple of hours they were gladdened by the sight of a house immediately beneath them. Both were famished when they reached Mr. Ennis' house, but he soon had a good feed ready for them, made them wash up and soon they were as fit as ever and only too anxious to proceed home. The parents of both boys were in great suspense all Sunday night and were greatly relieved when the news of their safety reached them. Some of the volunteers were ready to take up a search for them, when it was learned that they were o.k.

ADVICE TO BASEBALL FANS

If you're one of those baseball dubs Who root for Wanderers or for Cubs, On any hot half-holiday When all the fans are in full play, Your throat is likely to go dry Just when you want to give full cry To pent-up wrath against the ump, Or player whose place is the dump. 'Tis then you find, as you sit dumb How useful's Coco-Cola Gum. When next you go up to the grounds Whence oft are heard discordant sounds, Just take a box of Honey Fruit, The flavor's sure to help you root, Or if you are a player, son, 'Twill make you good for a home run. Two Veterans Return Home

By the express yesterday there arrived Lieutenants Ern and Max Churchill, who immediately visited Government House and in the absence of His Excellency were warmly welcomed by Sir Joseph Outerbridge, who referred to them as soldiers and defenders of the Empire. At the station they were met by many ladies of the Reception Committee. Both are Gallipoli veterans, and left with the First Contingent; Ern, as a Lance Corporal with B Co., and Max as a private in A. The former received his second stripe while on the way across to the Old Country, the third at Edinburgh, and his commission a day before the battalion left Aldershot for the Peninsula. Shortly after landing there he was wounded in the ankle but did not leave the field, receiving treatment at the dressing station. Later he was stricken with jaundice and at the evacuation was placed in hospital at Malta. From there he was sent to Sicily to recuperate, then back to Malta and thence to Queen Alexandra's Hospital at Millbank. He had just been released from hospital and was about to leave for France when he received orders to return on two months' furlough. While at Gallipoli he took part in the second night's struggle at Caribou Hill. He is now almost fully recovered and shortly expects to take up duty at Headquarters.

Lieut. Max was invalided from Gallipoli, suffering from dysentery and after leaving Wandsworth Hospital went across to France with a detachment of Ours a few days before the big drive, but was not privileged to take part in the historic charge of July 1st, being attached to the reserves. On return to England he was granted three months' furlough.

From England the soldier brothers crossed to Quebec by the Scandinavian thence coming here via North Sydney and rail.

Sergt. Nugent and Pte. Waugh who accompanied them stopped off at their home, Grand Falls, and Sergt. R. Hickey left the party at North Sydney to spend some time with friends. He is coming back to assist in the military instruction of the men now in training.

They report the last draft arrived and will go to France in five or six weeks. They also say, Ben and Bob Stick are doing well, the former being in the Avr Depot and the latter in hospital suffering from a fractured leg. Lieut. Dicks is recovering and Second Lieut. Ralph Herdier, son of Mr. W. J. Herder, proprietor of the Evening Telegram, is now at Kinross, taking a general course.

Advocate Living Wage for Police

(To the Editor) Dear Sir,—Your editorial reference on the Police Force in yesterday's issue is very timely and shows up a condition of things which is, not only unsatisfactory, but is really alarming. The Police Force, intended for the protection of the citizens, is the most important part of the Civil Service and should always be kept up to the highest standard possible, not only in the appearance of the men but in their ability to properly enforce a due regard for law and order which are designed to guard the citizens against dangers to property and life. This is not being done to the extent required. Witness almost every day automobiles speeding far beyond the lawful limit within the city limits and even worse in the suburbs. Just why the police do not cope with this dangerous evil has been a puzzle. One reason is given in your editorial—"Police Force is very much undermanned." And why it is undermanned is also shown by the statement that the policemen are underpaid. Every other occupation is offering higher wages than does the Police Department, and as a policeman does not feel he is doing justice to himself or his family in living on a starvation wage he leaves the Force when the first opportunity presents itself of doing better. This is giving the Police Department a bad name and consequently few first-class recruits, if any, can be found to take their place. Certain it is that the Police Department is not up to the high standard it was ten or twelve years ago. The solution of the problem is as pointed out by you, Mr. Editor:—Give the Police a living wage. Inspector General Sullivan should (if he has not already done so) place the matter very strongly before the Government and insist for a general increase all round.

Funeral of the Late Mr. Woods

The funeral of the late Hon. H. J. B. Woods took place at 3 p.m. yesterday from his late residence, Bemister Place, and was in itself a demonstration of the regard and esteem held for the venerable dead by the whole people of St. John's irrespective of class or creed. The cortege was preceded by a number of the pupils of Cochrane Street Sunday School followed by the Methodist clergymen of the City, Rev. C. A. Whitmarsh, of Brigus, the former pastor and Rev. Mr. Sutherland of St. Andrew's. A hearse preceded the remains bearing the many beautiful floral tributes presented by friends and relatives. Then came his brothers, Messrs. Sydney and Chesley Woods; grandsons and sons-in-law, Messrs. A. Mews, A. Peters, Eugene Lindsay and Alex. Marshall, who were followed by the Trustee and Quarterly Boards of the Cochrane St. Centennial Church and the members of the Executive Board of the Methodist College. Hon. Robt. Watson represented His Excellency the Governor, with whom walked Hon. J. R. Bennett, Acting Premier. Then followed the members of both branches of the Legislature, the officials of the Post Office and Postal Telegraphs, Hons. Justice Johnson and Kent representing the Judiciary and a concourse of citizens. Revs. Dr. Cowperthwaite and Whitmarsh, ex-pastors of Cochrane Street, conducted the service in the house, with Rev. Dr. Bond, the present pastor. At the graveside the services were taken by Revs. Dr. Curtis, Guy, Sutherland and Bond. A very touching, though pretty scene was the passing of the coffin as he passed. The service was very imposing and expressively said and concluded with one of the favourite hymns of the deceased "Rock of Ages." And so was laid to rest an upright, honest, and God-fearing man, a faithful and honorable servant of his country, one whose goodness was unbounded and whose life-work should be an inspiration to many who are now on the threshold of manhood.

To-morrow's Double Header

To-morrow's double-header baseball match between the Cubs and Red Lions and B. I. S. and Wanderers for the championship will undoubtedly prove the most interesting and exciting baseball contests ever played here. The outcome of these matches will decide the championship. Should the Cubs and Wanderers win out they must play off for the pennant, but if the Lions and Irish come out on top the four teams would be equal in points and a new schedule should be played to decide championship honours. The following is the table of points to date:

Table with columns: Team, F, W, L, To P, Pts. Cubs: 5, 3, 2, 1, 3. Wanderers: 5, 3, 2, 1, 3. B. I. S.: 5, 2, 3, 1, 2. Red Lions: 5, 2, 3, 1, 2.

The line-up for both teams will likely be: Cubs pitcher Cooney, catcher Clouston, 1st base Power, 2nd base Hiltz, 3rd base Buckingham, short stop Mullins, right field Ellis, left field Jenkins, centre field Rolls, long field Quick. Wanderers catcher B. I. S., pitcher King, 1st base O'Reilly, 2nd base Ring, 3rd base Campbell, short stop Dr. Power, right field McGrath, centre field French, long field Channing, Power.

Fishery Reports

Sept. 2nd. From J. Doveaux, (Cape Race to St. Shott's)—The catch to date is 9,470 qtls, with 80 for last week. Two motor boats and 40 dories and skiffs are fishing. The dories get from 1 to 2 qtls. daily when bait is obtainable but neither squid nor herring are plentiful. There is a good sign of cod on the grounds and prospects are fairly good.

Sept. 2nd. From T. McCarthy, (Renews to Seal Cove)—There is a good sign of cod but dogfish are numerous and are hindering operations. The total catch is 3,950 qtls. and for last week 700. Seven boats, 18 dories and 27 skiffs are fishing. Prospects are fair and there is plenty of squid.

Sept. 2nd. From R. Brown, (Upper Amherst Cove to Cape L'Argent)—Prospects for the Fall fishery are very bad. The fishermen say the inside grounds are clean and there is practically no cod on the outer grounds. Squid is very scarce, not half enough for bait being obtainable. About 300 dories and skiffs and 15 large boats and motors are fishing. The catch is 14,500 with 500 for last week.

Sept. 2nd. From W. White, (English Hr. to Spaniard's Cove)—The men with motors and trawls who go to the centre of the bay secure excellent catches and hand-liners get from half to one qt daily. Squid is plentiful and prospects are very good. The catch is 13,970 and for last week 530.

Sept. 2nd. From W. J. White, (Aquaforte to Caplin Bay)—The total catch is 7,476 qtls, with 1,004 for last week. Mostly trawls are being used and with very good results. Prospects are very encouraging and there is sufficient squid bait. Six whale boats and 85 dories and skiffs are fishing.
