THE SALE OF A WIFE.

A Very Peculiar Bigamy Case Tried at Cobourg-The Husband Got a $15 Watch For Her.

Port Hope, Jan. 9.—A case, new in the criminal records of Canadian courts, was tried at Cobourg yester-day in the County Court, before His Honor Judge Benson. That a man in this enlightened age should sell his wife for a watch seems almost inconceivable. But such is the fact which proves the charge brought by Crown Attorney Kerr against Albert Reynolds, of Percy Township, near Dartmouth. Reynolds was yesterday convicted of inciting to commit big-amy, and his brother and wife were convicted of bigamy.

On Dec. 10, 1900, George Albert
Reynolds and Annie Clark were married by the Presbyterian minister at ried by the Presbyterian minister at Norwood. They lived together as man and wife until last fall, when an elder brother, Walter Reynolds, aged 26, came home from Michigan. He revived a former intimacy existing between himself and George's wife. George resented this alienation of his wife's affections, or else he was tired of her, and offered to sell her and his household effects to walter the consideration being a Walter, the consideration being a watch bought in Michigan for $15.

A bargain to this effect was made, the marriage license procured, under false pretences by the two brothers, at Rosmeath, and husband No. 1 took charge of his two children while his wife and brother were being mar-ried by the Methodist minister at Warkworth, in November, 1902.

The husband No. 2 took immediate possession of his brother's wife, two

The affair culminated yesterday, when Walter Reynolds and Annie Reynolds, who were defended by E. C. S. Huyckle, K. C., of Cobourg, pleaded guilty to charges of bigamy, and received sentences of four months each, in the county jail at Cobourg. Albert Reynolds, the first d, who was defended by J. B. husband, who was defended by J. B. McColl. M.P., was convicted of in-citing his brother and wife to com-citing his brother and wife to commit bigamy, and received three months in the same place.

In passing sentence, His Honor pointed out that the lightness of the sentences was due to the ignorance of the parties concerned, and that their offence against society and we their offence against society and mo-rality had affected no innocent party, injuriously.

The parties in this unique domestic mix-up remain unaffected in their relationship, husband No. 1 promising to take back his wife and childhe had sold as soon as their sentences expires.

Fireman McHarg Killed and Two Engineers Injured.

Collision on Saturday Near Port Robin -Two Freights Going in Opposite Directions Meet on Same Track-Two of the Cars Rolled Into the River-Dead Fireman Was Horribly Mangled -Miracle There Were Not More Deaths

St. Catharines, Jan. 12.—Another wreck occurred on the Grand Trunk Welland division at Port Robinson, about 6.10 o'clock Saturday morning between two freight trains, a double header Grand Trunk and a Wabash. Up to 5 p.m. the main line was still blocked, although auxiliaries from Niagara Falls and Fort Erie had been working all day.

The accident happened just south of the Port Robinson Station at what is known as the "Gauntlet," very close to the Chippewa River. The double-header was going south on the Grand Trunk, engines No. 760 and No. 725, and Wabash engine 1.482 going west from Ningara.

rine 1,482, going west from Niagara Falls, crashed together.
The fireman on the Wabash, Robert McHarg, of London, was instantly killed and both G.T.R. engineers were slightly injured.

The wreck occurred at a point overlooking a steep embankment and both engines of the Grand Trunk train were hurled downwards. Several cars of both lines are piled up in a heap, two rolling in the river. The accident is supposed to have been caused by the air brakes of the G. T. R. train failing to work. The weather was bitterly cold, the thermometer being about zero at the time of the accident. The dead fire-man was terribly mangled and it is a miracle that more deaths did not The other train hands jumped and saved their lives.

Four Young Manitoba Farmers Poured Whiskey Into a Halfbreed Boy Until He Collapsed—He Is Since Dead.

Winnipeg Jan. 10.—It was all a joke. Four young farmers were in Neepawa for a good time. They had Henry Spence a halfbreed boy, aged 18, with them and decided to get Henry was willing, and now it is all a tragedy. The boy died last night. Being roused to consciousness a couple of hours before his weak heart gave its last beat, he told as much as he could remember of what happened to him. Last night a coroner's jury held an inquest over the remains and the four men impli-cated are held on charges of manslaughter.

It was last Monday night that the foul work was done. As long as Spence was able to hold himself tospence was ane to note insent to gether he yielded to brutal persuasion and swallowed whiskey in large doses. When he became unable to help himself his associates further amused themselves by holding his head back and pouring the fiery liquid down his throat. Not until the how completely collegied did the the boy completely collapsed did the disgusting spectacle end. The victim was taken home insensible, and he lingered in a semi-conscious state till last night, when he died.

COST OF THE DURBAR.

Indian Government Will Pay $3,750,000

London Jan. 12.—Cable despatches received, from Delhi Saturday an-nounce the departure from there of the Viceroy, Lord Curzon of Kedles-Duchess of Connaught and other not-abilities, and the end of the Durbar display. FELL WITH A LAMP. Mrs. William Belsom, With Her Clothing in Flames, Rushes Through the House Screaming For Help.

Windsor, Jan. 12. - Mrs. Belsom, wife of Mr. William Belsom, of this city, Saturday night while descending the cellar stairs at her home on Windsor avenue slipped and fell, scattering coal oil all over her clothing from the lamp she was carrying. With her dress ablaze the unfortunate woman managed to climb the steep stairs into the dining-room, and rushed past the table, the cloth of it catching fire. In her excitement, and wild with pain, she threw herself into a cane-bottom chair, and the bottom was burned out of it. Continually screaming, she managed to get into the parlor, where she fell on the floor. All of this took place in a few seconds, so rapidly that by the time her daughter, Miss May Belsom, who was on the seond floor, could reach her mother her injuries were such that efforts toward saving her life were seen to be use-less. Two men on the street also heard the woman's screams and rush-ed in, but Mrs. Belsom was dying when they arrived. Her face and hands wer burned black, and the carpet where she fell was destroyed. Another heartrending feature of the accident was the fact that her husband, who is chief engineer on the Grand Trunk Railway transfer, which was stuck in the ice on the Lansdowne, was on board that boat river, and not until yesterday morndid the terrible news reach him. Mr. Belsom is a member of the License Board and a retiring member of the School Board. Beside the husband and daughter Mrs. Belsom leaves a son, William Belsom, jun.
