

Glasses that Fit

We succeed because our glasses give perfect sight. The frame sets comfortably, each eye looking through the center of the lens, the whole becoming one with the wearer.

A large party of picnickers from Frankville enjoyed the freedom of Loverin's park at Charleston Lake on Saturday last.

Mr. W. Weir, of Chantry, and Miss C. Preston, of Soperton, drove to Gananogue and were quietly married by Rev. W. J. Wood.

Several little consolation picnics were held here on Saturday by children unable to go on the excursion—and they had a jolly good time, too.

Mrs. Charles Taplin and Mrs. George Patterson of Fort Morgan, Colorado, are visiting old friends in this district after an absence of five years.

Rev. H. W. Burnett of Addison conducted the evening service in the Methodist church on Sunday last, his work being taken by Rev. S. J. Hughes.

A large number of members of Court Athens No 784 joined with their Delta brethren in attending divine service on Sunday. They went and returned by train.

The merchants of Brockville have decided to take Wednesday afternoons during the summer months as a half holiday, and the clerks of the stores are to bear the expense of advertising the fact.

The entrance candidates are with us to-day in large numbers. We hope they may all get safely over this first hurdle of the higher educational course they are entering upon. They finish writing to-morrow.

Miss Cora Lee of the Brockville asylum staff spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousin, Miss Raymond. Miss Elsie Stewart of Seelys accompanied her and is remaining this week.

Rev. I. N. Beckstedt, pastor of St. Paul's, left this week for Guelph and other western points on a three weeks holiday. During his absence, no public Sunday service will be held in the Presbyterian church, unless otherwise announced.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve dinner in the rooms in the rear of the post office on 12th of July. Any lodges wishing this accommodation should apply to Mr. John Kappell.

The officers elect of Delta, Newboro, and Westport Masonic lodges were installed in the latter place on Friday evening. A large number of Smith's Falls brethren attended the ceremony.

Rev. Geo. S. and Mrs. Clendinnen have greatly endeared themselves to the people of Elgin, and on the eve of their departure for Stanstead, Que., they were presented with addresses and handsome gifts.

Evangelistic work was the key note of the sessions of the Central Canada Association of Baptist Churches, held at Arnprior last week. On Monday evening an address on this subject was given by the Rev. L. M. Weeks, B.D., of Athens.

The Foresters concert in the Armories, Brookville, on Thursday last was a great success. The Recorder says: It was one of the most successful entertainments ever held in Brookville. The Foresters have every reason to feel proud of it.

The children of Miss Belle Witte's S. S. class are eagerly anticipating the arrival of their annual picnic. This has become to them one of the brightest spots in the summer season. Miss Witte attended the Provincial S. S. convention in Toronto last week.

There was keen competition at the meeting of the counties council for the contract of supplying the House of Industry with coal for next year. The contract was finally awarded to Mr. W. G. Parish of Athens, at $7.00 per ton. Six tenders were before the council.

About 10,000 boxes of cheese changed hands in Brookville on Saturday. The ruling price was 9 3/4c, but a few lots brought 9 1/2c. A motion at the board meeting to adopt a brand for Brookville district was carried without discussion. It will come into effect next season.

Mr. I. J. Mansell of Brookville, representing the Farmersville Plank Road Co., was here on Tuesday investigating a complaint that had been made of stagnant water on the Company's property near Sarah street. It looks as if joint action on the part of the Company and village would be necessary to secure its removal.

Mr. R. R. Graham, M.A., has resigned his position as classical master in the A. H. S. to qualify for a position in a new line of science. Mr. Graham has been a faithful, efficient worker in the school, gaining alike the esteem of his fellow-teachers and the students, and his departure is sincerely regretted.

Mr. Gordon Lawson had arranged to leave for the North-West on Monday, but unexpectedly made a deal with Mr. Tassie by which he became owner of the stock in trade of the Wiltsie restaurant. Mr. Lawson is now in possession of the business and will be pleased to serve his many friends. Mr. Tassie will return to Smith's Falls.

About two hundred attended the Methodist S. S. excursion on Saturday last, and thoroughly enjoyed the trip by both train and boat. The Riverside is a fine boat, and made good time in her trip to and from Alexandria Bay. The stay of 45 minutes at the Bay was pleasantly employed by the excursionists. The weather was delightful, and the kindness and courtesy of the officials of the train and boat added to the enjoyment of all.

Miss Elma Derbyshire, of Brookville's public school teaching staff, has returned home for the holidays.

Mrs. E. Taylor of Athens spent last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McBratney.

Commencing on Saturday next, the ringing of a curfew bell will warn Brookville children to make a home run. Should any kids be caught off bases after that signal they will be declared out by the police and escorted safely in.

Next Tuesday evening (July 4th), a strawberry social will be held on the Plum Hollow Baptist church lawn, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. A first class programme will be provided, including outside talent. Should Tuesday evening prove stormy, the social will be held on the 5th. Tickets 10 and 25c.

Mr. Wm. Conlin has disposed of his barbering business here to Mr. Abel Kavanagh, but will remain in the shop as an employee during the summer. Mr. Conlin has served the public very efficiently for the last twelve years. Mr. Kavanagh will prove a popular successor to numerous patrons of the shop.

Mr. Sidney Crummy, Boston, who is visiting at his home near Frankville, called on old friends in Athens this week. He visited the A. H. S., where he had his full share of trials and triumphs a few years ago, and was impressed with the thought that the students of to-day are smaller and younger than in the graduating class of his year.

This morning Miss Jane Barber left Athens to make her home with friends in Detroit. Mr. F. W. Barber of the Merchants Bank is taking his holidays, and he accompanies her to her destination. The decision to go was made quickly, and Miss Barber expressed her regrets to the Reporter that she was unable to call on her old friends to say good bye. Miss Barber's gentle spirit and high Christian character have gained for her many friends here who, while deeply regretting her departure, express the fervent wish that her life may be pleasantly spent in her new home.

Hood's

Sarsaparilla enjoys the distinction of being the greatest curative and preventive medicine the world has ever known. It is an all-round medicine, producing its unequalled effects by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood on which the health and strength of every organ, bone and tissue depend. Accept no substitute for Hood's, but insist on having Hood's AND ONLY HOOD'S.

EXECUTORS' SALE

Of Real Estate in the Township of Lansdowne

The undersigned Executors of the Last Will and Testament of John Thomas Taylor, deceased, do hereby offer for Public Auction, by John W. Russell, Auctioneer, at Quigley's Hotel in the Village of Delta in the County of Leeds, on Friday the 30th day of June, 1905

at one o'clock in the afternoon, the following lands and premises, namely:—

All and singular those certain parcels or tracts of land and premises situate lying and being in the said Township of Lansdowne, being composed of

(First) The West Half of the Rear Half of Lot Number Fifteen in the Twelfth Concession of the said Township of Lansdowne, containing by admeasurement fifty acres more or less.

(Secondly) Being composed of a part of Lot Number Fourteen in the Twelfth Concession of the said Township of Lansdowne, it being all that part of said lot lying North of the King's highway now leading to Delta and crossing said lot number fourteen in rear, containing by admeasurement nine acres and eighty rods be the same more or less.

(Thirdly) Being composed of a part of Lot Number Eleven in the Thirteenth Concession of the said Township of Lansdowne, and which may be known as follows, that is to say:—Commencing at the corner post or sideline between lots numbers ten and eleven in front of said concession and running along said concession West six chains and one half chain, thence turning and running North parallel with the sideline until it strikes the township line between Lansdowne and Bastard, thence turning and running a North-east course along the said Township until it strikes the sideline between lots numbers ten and eleven in said concession as aforesaid, thence turning and running south along said sideline to the place of beginning, containing by admeasurement twenty-four acres be the same more or less.

The above lands are known as the John T. Taylor farm and are situated about one half mile from Soperton Post Office.

About forty acres are tillable land and the remainder pasture land.

The said lands are well watered and said to be in a high state of cultivation.

On part of the lands are erected a frame dwelling, stone drive house and horse stable, frame barn and cow stable, two sheds and machine house.

The above lands will be sold subject to the Dower of Letitia Taylor.

TERMS:

Ten per cent of the purchase money to be paid down at the time of sale. Balance within ten days thereafter without interest. The vendors reserve the right to make one bid.

Further terms and conditions will be made known at sale.

For particulars apply to the undersigned.

R. J. GREEN,
T. R. BEALE,
Solicitor for Executors.
Dated at Athens this 12th June, 1905.

An economical young lady who does not live a thousand miles from this town, wrote her own wedding invitations recently and got it "Your presents is requested." She wasn't making very much of a mistake after all, but it is considered very bad form to put it just that way.

Notice to Students

Students who contemplate taking a business college course will find it to their financial advantage to communicate with the Reporter office. We can save you money.

a Pound of Cure

Farming, like all other business, has proved a science. Fortunately all farm produce is commanding a remunerative price. Good results can only be had from any source when we have done our best toward obtaining them. The most successful farmers have proved beyond doubt that profitable results come from feeding Poultry and all other Stock not only good grain, hay and ensilage but such Blood-makers and Tonics as Herbageum, International Stock Food, Poultry Food, Kow Kuro, Horse Tonic, Linseed Meal, Oil Cake, The Great English Calf Food—Cream Equivalent, Granulated Bone & Oyster Shell for Hens.

All of the above are guaranteed to produce results that will pay a good dividend for the cost of them.
