BRITISH ELECTIONS.

Liberals Everywhere Being Snowed Under --Conservatives and Liberal-Unionists Sweeping the Country.

London, Oct. 1.—Sixteen English and Irish boroughs, electing 20 members of the house of commons, are polling today, so to-night's returns will furnish some indication of the trend of opinion. Winston Churchill is among the candidates whose fate will be decided to-day. The total of unopposed members elected up to this hour was 113, as follows:—Conservatives, 97; Liberals, 8; Nationalists, 6. Among the interesting personalities returned to-day unopposed were:—Ministerialists, Lord George Hamilton, secretary of state for India; Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild; Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer; Mr. Akers-Douglas, first commissioner of works; William Lecky, the historian; Sir Edward Carson, solicitor-general. Nationalists—John E. Redmond, chairman of the United Irish parliamentary party. Liberals—Sir Edward Grey, formerly parliamentary secretary for foreign affairs.

In the following borough, polled to-day:—Devonport, Durham, Exeter, King's Lynn, Petersborough, Preston, Reading, Rochdale, Wigan and the North and South Divisions of Westham. In Durham the Unionists secured a majority of 781, as against one of 65 at the last election. The results of the other boroughs show a little change, with the exception of a very significant increase in the Unionist majorities in Westham, where, in the North Division, the Unionists secured a lead of 2,468 against 704 of the last election, and in the South Division a lead of 1,196 against 765 in the last election. Westham is a densely populated working-class district at the east end of London, and the results there seems to show that the Liberals have little to hope for in the metropolis.

On the other hand Matthew White-Ridley, son of the home secretary, was elected at Staybridge in the Unionist interests by a majority of only 81, as against the Unionist majority of 632 secured by P. H. Sidbottom at the election in 1895. At Hartlepool, Sir Christopher Furness, Liberal, received 6,491 votes, against 4,812 cast for Sir Thomas Richardson, Liberal-Unionist, who represented the constituency in the late parliament. This is a Liberal majority of 1,679, as against a Liberal-Unionist majority of 81 at the election of 1895. Both the Conservative candidates were elected at Plymouth, which is a "double-barrelled" constituency. The voting was as follows:—H. E. Duke, Conservative, 6,008; Hon. Ivor Guest, Conservative, 5,005; Sigismund F. Mendle, Liberal, 5,460; H. De R. Walker, Liberal, 5,264.

At Oldham, another "double-barrelled" constituency, one Liberal and one Conservative candidate have been elected, the latter being Winston Leonard Spencer Churchill, eldest son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill. The polling was as follows:—Alfred Emmett, Liberal, 12,947; Mr. Churchill, Conservative, 12,931; Walter Runciman, Liberal, 12,704; Mr. Crisp, Conservative, 12,592.

The returns received up to midnight show the total number of elected to be 132—Conservatives, 97; Unionists, 18; Liberals, 13; Nationalists, 6. The Conservatives have gained two seats and the Liberals one.

BY TOMFOOLERY

This Candidate Claims to Have Been Injured in His Initiation.

Brings a Suit For Damages—Wants $5,000—The Evidence Given.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 2.—Secrets of the initiation of the Junior Order, American Mechanics, came out in the trial of the damages suit of William H. Bausman, who is under twenty-one years of age, against John A. Hitchcock, Joseph S. Willey, Geo. C. Ashton and others. The declaration states that Bausman was assaulted and beaten while undergoing initiation in the Oriental degree of the Junior Order of American Mechanics, and was permanently injured. The amount claimed is $5,000.

In his testimony Mr. Bausman said that he and a Mr. Daugherty were being initiated. Both were ordered at the beginning of the ceremony to strip off all their clothing and to undergo the ceremony. They were then told to strap skates upon their feet. Mr. Bausman alleges, though he put on only one, and they were led through a gathering of about 200 masked men. During the ceremony Mr. Bausman alleges that Mr. Daugherty slipped and fell, one of his skates striking Mr. Bausman in the chest, since which time he has spit blood frequently and suffered internally.

The great amount of design work done at the Victoria Avenue Green House is sufficient proof of the excellence of the work. Nothing but the best at the lowest prices. Telephone 181.

LOCAL BRIEFS

"We are going to have the most successful fair ever held in Chatham," said Secretary Robinson, "more and better entries than ever received."

Mrs. J. S. Turner will be "at home" to her friends at the residence of her father, Victoria avenue, on Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 9th.

Lost—On Saturday night in the opera house or when returning a dark purse that contained between seven and eight dollars. It was the hard earnings of a young girl and the "Planet" will pay a reward for its return.

Harry W. Anderson, of The Planet, and Sam Shaw, formerly of Tilbury, returned from an extended visit to the Old Country on the Lake Ontario. Mr. Shaw was the first face from this country that Mr. Anderson saw while away and he didn't fall in with him till he had boarded the steamer on his homeward journey.

THE C. C. I. BOARD.

The C. C. I. Board met Monday afternoon. There were present Chairman J. E. Thomas and J. W. White, D. A. Hutchinson, J. C. Fleming, Thos. Scullard and Dr. Batiaby. A letter was received from Principal Patterson re accommodation for type-writers. A communication was also received from A. E. Jewett relating to the need of works on eleven a year for the use of pupils and requesting the board to grant $25 for that purpose and that the selection of the books be left to the principal and science master. The following accounts were passed:—Banner Co. $9.30, Cuckey and Pritchard $23.65, C. H. Handcock $13, Westman Bros. $3.70, John Morton 40c.

On motion the tenders for screens for the typewriting room were referred to the property committee with power.

On motion A. E. Jewett's request for $25 for science books was granted. Principal Patterson reported the average attendance for September at 218 out of enrolled attendance of 232.

MR. MARX WANTS FIGURES

And in Due Course He Will Get Them—Peoples' Eyes Will Be Opened.

To the Planet.—With more watchfulness than accuracy, The Planet persists in quoting the present prices of necessities of life as from 25 to 35 per cent higher than a few years ago, and to crown it claims that the Dominion government's fiscal policy as the sole cause, a procedure which, were it even true, is of very doubtful utility. Unfavorably high quotations discourage people from setting in our midst, which cannot be the policy or desire of The Planet. Being somewhat of a student on figures, I have made some inquiries and came to the conclusion that The Planet is insufficiently informed on the subject. I therefore beg to propose that you will kindly enumerate the comparative prices of now and then of the articles of the necessities of life you refer to. This I trust you will do without any delay.

Oct. 2nd, 1900. F. MARX.

Note—The Planet will in due course cheerfully give the comparative list Mr. Marx asks for. When it does we imagine the Liberal candidate will regret that one of his supporters was so indiscreet as to suggest a proceeding which will open people's eyes. At the same time, when Mr. Marx is alleging incense against this journal he should not be inaccurate himself, which he is when he uses the words "sole cause." However, The Planet accedes to his request.—Ed. Planet.
