THE ACADIAN, WOLFFVILLE, N. S. OCT. 24, 1884.

Local and Provincial.

We have been obliged to crowd out a lot of interesting matter this issue.

The ladies of the Methodist Church, Hantsport, intend giving a Dinner, Tea and Sale on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. J. R. Webster, of Wall Lake, Iowa, formerly of Sheffield's Mills, has our thanks for late Chicago and Wall Lake papers.

A boy named Tharior, about nine years of age, was caught in the machinery of the Windsor Cotton Mill last Wednesday week, and instantly killed.

NOTICE.—The members of the Wolfville Cricket Club will please not forget the meeting at the Sans Souci Club Room to-night. The business will be of a very important nature.

SHIPPING TAGS.—Dennison's Patent Shipping Tags, printed to order, only $2.50 per thousand at this office.

The ladies of the Methodist congregation of Grand Pre intend holding a tea-meeting at the church at that place, on Wednesday evening next. We can assure all, from past experience, that a good time may be expected. Don't miss it.

Don't forget the lecture to-night at Academy Hall by Rev. S. McCully Black, A. B. Subject:—"John Milton—glimpses at the Man and his Poetry." Admission 10 cents.

We are glad to see our old friend Mr. C. E. Baker among us again.

Jacob S. Cunnabel, the patriarch of Nova Scotia printers, died at the residence of his son-in-law, William Harris, Halifax, on the evening of Monday last, at the age of 82. He was hale and hearty up to a few days ago, when he fell off a chair and sustained injuries which must have hastened his death.

NOTICE.—J. McLeod's Price List for Watch Repairs.

BOTANICAL SCIENCE.—In an article in Wednesday's Western Chronicle we are styled "an immature contemporary." We plead guilty to being rather green but prefer that to being an over-ripe, gone to seed beet like our venerable Kentville contemporary "sans editorials, sans local news, sans proof-reading, sans brains, sans everything."

We are now furnishing Letter and Note Heads, Envelopes (cornered or addressed), Bill Heads, Counter Heads, Statements, Business Cards, Shipping Tags, and all kinds of plain and ornamental printing at extremely low prices. Samples and prices furnished on application.

A few nice Croquet Sets for sale at Western Book & News Co's for $2.00

The London Canadian Gazette of Oct. 9th says:—

At the fruit and vegetable show opened on Tuesday at the Crystal Palace. Some remarkable fine specimens of apples from Nova Scotia were exhibited. Six special prizes have been awarded to Nova Scotian exhibits, the silver cup being won by Dr. H. O. McLauch of Wolfville N. S.

F. L. Brown & Co. are showing a splendid line of Crockery, in Sets and pieces.

A disastrous fire at Bridgetown on Sunday last by which the foundry of W. A. Craig was totally destroyed, also the Canning Factory of F. C. Nutt and the Court House. We clip the following from the Bridgetown Monitor:

"Mr. Craig's loss is estimated at $8,000 on which, he had insurance of $1,000 in the Commercial Union Office.

Mr. Craig had but a few weeks previously taken into partnership a young man named William McAdam, a former resident of this place. The latter invested every dollar of his savings and the calamity that has just occurred has swept his whole investment away. He has a wife and three small children and his case is truly a hard one.

"Mr. Nutt loses about $3,500 on which he had insured $1,000 in the British American office. The Court House was valued at about $1,500 on which there was insurance of $800."

Local and Provincial.

Go to Western Book & News Co's for Text and Birthday Cards, large and extra fine assortment.

Mr. John Burns, of Ellershouse, Hants Co., has a half bred Alderney cow from whose milk he produced fourteen pounds of butter per week all through the summer, after using what milk he required in his family; and during a few weeks when the pasture was real good he made seven pounds every three days.

5 quires of fine note paper at the Western Book & News Co's for 25c.

As Mr. C. R. Bill has failed to put in an appearance at 'Chronicle' office, Kentville, on the 17th, to arrange for the colt race, which I accepted for $100 in your last issue, I consider myself free to object to any further arrangement for a race that may differ from the above named date; and will not accept any other challenge this season, as it is getting too late to train on the track, and will be too cold for a large audience to enjoy themselves. Yours, truly,
J. I. BROWN.
Wolfville, Oct. 20.

Nice line of Walking Sticks at Western Book & News Co's.

TEMPERANCE.—Colonel J. J. Hickman, the Good Templar Orator from Kentucky, will deliver a FREE Temperance Oration, under the auspices of the Good Templars of Nova Scotia, at the Baptist Church, Wolfville, to-morrow (Saturday) evening at 7.30 o'clock. Col. Hickman is one of the ablest temperance orators in the United States, and his lectures are pronounced the best ever delivered in this Province. Everyone should make a point of hearing this lecture as it will no doubt be a rich treat.

OUR EXCHANGES.

We have received the first and second numbers of the Critic—published weekly by a company in Halifax. It presents a fine appearance and gives promise of being one of the best papers in the province. We see it has started with the independent flag out. Stick to it, Critic, and come out boldly for truth and right.

The Acadian Athenaeum is out for October. It is printed in the New Star office. The reading matter is up to its usual standard of excellence.

The Truro Guardian also comes to hand this week. It is a well printed and well edited sheet and is a credit to its publishers.

The Maple Leaf, of Albert County, N. B., is among our exchanges. It commenced smaller in size than the ACADIAN, but now has grown to the regular county newspaper size. It is full of crisp and spicy local news and is without a model county newspaper, being both independent and fearless.

The Sun has appeared to us from Truro, it shines brightly in the journalistic world. Is of good typographical appearance and contains plenty of the right kind of local and editorial matter.

CONCERT.—The teachers and scholars of the Port Williams Baptist Sabbath School gave a very interesting entertainment in the basement of the Church on Wednesday evening. The programme consisted of three principal dialogues, interspersed with excellent music. The first one was "The tempter; or the sailor's return." This piece we were too late to hear but understand it was very well played. The others were "The drunkard, and his reforms, and a farce called "We are all teetotalers here." In both of these all the parts were well taken but perhaps more particularly in the last. Mr. Beckwith as Jeddiah Maple, and the lady who acted the part of his wife, were capitally done as was also the part of Hulda by Miss Welton, and Jirah and Hoz. by the two boys. The recitation by Miss Masters was a splendid effort and another by Miss Lulu Newcomb was excellently rendered. The Misses Harris, of Wolfville, sang a very pretty duet and Miss Hattie Harris a solo, both of which reflected great credit upon them. The proceeds, which amounted to about $25.00, is to go towards purchasing a library for the school. Mr. G. Illey, supt. of the school, conducted the exercises.
