Furious Driving.

THE EDITOR CHIGNECTO POST:

SIR.—Is it not time attention was called to the fast driving, which daily takes place on our streets, or shall we wait till the community is shocked by beholding the mutilated remains of some good citizen?

Let me draw the attention of the milty ones to the law on the subject. He thinks it is the first moose ever in Hantsport. THE EDITOR CHIGNECTO POST:

Let me draw the attention of the guilty ones to the law on the subject, which reads as follows "No person shall ride or drive any horse or other animal upon any highway in the County in such a manner as to obstruct the passage, or endanger the safety of any other person, under the penalty, not to exceed, $10.00 or twenty days, for each and every offence.

I trust this hint will act as the proverbial "ounce of prevention"—Otherwise let me say to these gentlemen (whose names are well known) an example will be made of some of them at an early date. In the words of the immortal Buzfuz the first offender caught, be his name Pickwick, or Nokes, or Stokes, Buzfuz the first offender caught, be his name Pickwick, or Nokes, or Stokes, or Stiles or Thompson, will find himself in the clutches of the law.
