A. B. Curtis, the genial manager of the Telephone Company, went to Charlottetown Saturday. He drove several miles back in the woods, and before he emerged again on Sunday had captured about a hundred fine trout.

Sunday forenoon in the R. C. church at Nelson, Michael Hays dropped dead in his seat just after having taken up the collection. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. Deceased was over fifty years of age and unmarried. He was a millwright but had not been able to work lately.

The Summer School for Sunday School workers in connection with the Synod of the Maritime Provinces of the Presbyterian church in Campbellton, will meet at St. Andrew's church, Campbellton, on Tuesday evening (July 2nd) at 7:30 o'clock. Prof. Davidson P. H. D. of Toronto University, Prof. W. C. McMillan of Dalhousie College, and other specialists in S. S. work have been engaged by the Synod to deliver a course of lectures to the school. Affairs cordially invited to these classes.

Before an audience which completely filled the assembly hall of the Dalhousie college, pupils of that institution on Tuesday evening presented a play in five acts called "The Wisdom of Foolishness." It was a very interesting performance, the different parts being handled in an intelligent and painstaking manner. The receipts amounted to $55. The performance was repeated Wednesday night when it again attracted a large audience. The receipts last night were $40 for the occasion and the whole affair reflected the greatest credit on the pupils and sisters.

At the Upper Church, P. O. church on Tuesday morning the funeral took place of Mrs. John McArthur, who died at her home in Dalhousie. Mrs. G. E. Mercer, Dalhousie; Mrs. John Giroux, Charlottetown; Mrs. Peter Nadeau, Campbellton; also three sons, John and Henry, Campbellton and Wm. St. John, also forty-four grandchildren and great-grandchildren, were present. The funeral was held in the choir of the church. The Rev. Father Campbell officiated at the altar with R. T. Wallace and R. F. Whetton in the choir. Deceased was 88 years of age. The family is very grateful to all who attended the funeral. Papers please copy.

The tenth district convention of the United Baptists, opened in the Campbellton Baptist church, on Thursday last at 7:30 p.m. At 10:30 Friday evening the ministers held their conference. Quite a number of changes have been made in the teaching staff of the Campbellton schools. Miss Agnes Wilson, who taught grades VII and VIII has accepted a position in Chatham which is her home town. Miss Lena Miller has accepted a position in Dalhousie which is her home town. Principal Lewis Miss Margaret Mair, Miss Mary Reid, Miss Maggie McNair, Miss Sarah Duffy, and Miss Georgina Dickson, have all been re-appointed for the coming year.

Allan N. McEvoy, a graduate of Toronto University, has been appointed by Bishop Richardson to assist Rev. R. J. Coleman in the pastoral work of the parish during summer months.

Frederick J. Clifton, Gloucester county, aged 24 years, was accidentally drowned by the upsetting of his boat while at his fishing traps at Stonehaven Tuesday. The body has not yet been recovered.

It is said that the reason the steamer Florence is not coming to Campbellton this season is that the Dalhousie college is not willing to warrant it. Nevertheless the boat has sailed for here and some are of the opinion that she should come.
