OPENING OF OSLER HOME.

Interesting Function at Dundas on Saturday Afternoon.

Bishop DuMoulin Gave Sketch of Canon and Mrs. Osler.

Movement on Foot to Secure Isolation Hospital.

Dundas, Nov. 1 .- On Saturday afteron the Eleln Osler Memorial Home for Women was formally opened here. home has been provided by the ren of the late Mrs. Osler, wife of the late Canon Osler, in commemoration of their own sainted mother. It stands in the corner of Hatt and Ogilvie It has a present capacity of twenty inmates, and has already four within its fold, and as many more to be eceived as soon as internal arrangements are complete. The home is built what may be called old English style of architecture and will at once attract the attention of any passerby. There was a large attendance at the opening. Lemmond occupied the chair, and briefly outlined the object of the institution. Rev. E. A. Irving conducted devotional exercises, after which Bishop DuMoulin gave a sketch of the work of the late Canon and Mrs. Osler. He paid a high tribute to their devotion to their work, and referred to the distinguished members of their family, mentioning in this connection the late B. B. Osler, barrister; Justice Osler and E. B. Osler, barrister; Justice Osler and E. B. Osler, of Toronto, and Dr. Wm. Osler, regius professor of Oxford University, England. The bishop also spoke in the highest terms of praise of the ladies who have so nobly aided in establishing the home, which was destined to add cheer and happiness to aged people whose circumstances in life made such a home a blessing to them.

Justice Osler, of Toronto, gave a brief address, and formally handed over to the chairman. S. I. Leunard, Who is also of architecture and will at once attract Justice Osler, of Toronto, gave a brief address, and formally handed over to the chairman, S. J. Lennard, who is also chairman of the Board of Management effeth institution, the deeds and charter in connection therewith. E. B. Osler and Rev. S. H. Gray, of Knox Church, also gave short addresses.

On arriving at the home the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Osler. Refreshments were served after the formal opening proceedings were were received by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Oaler. Refreshments were served after the formal opening proceedings were concluded, and the guests shown through the institution. A letter was read from Mother Celestine, of the House of Providence, regretting her inability to be present, and wishing the home great prosperity and usefulness. Among guests present from Toronto were Dr. and Mrs. Walker, formerly of Dundas.

The anniversary services in the Methodist Church yesterday were preached by Rev. J. W. Smith. B. A., of Hamilton. At the morning service Mrs. Smith sang "I Love to Tell the Story."

Dundas dog owners are in hopes that at this evening's meeting of the Town Council they may be relieved of the necessity of keeping their canines within doors, as has been done in Hamilton.

There is a movement on foot to purchase the old Barton castle for an isolation hospital, and on Saturday Councillor Pennington received subscriptions amounting to $500 to aid in suitably fitting up the place for the purpose.

Owing to the prevalence of scarlet feyer persons under 16 years of age are prohibited from attending the picture theatre. The absence of the gods in the front chairs and their joining in the singing choruses are much missed.

CITY MISSION.

Work Among Foreigners Considered by Methodists.

A meeting of the Methodist City Mission Board was held in Centenary lecture room this morning to sider the work among the Italians, which is at present being conducted by Mr. Ernest E. Taylor in the east end. A committee, consisting of the president, Rev. W. J. Smith, Rev. H. G. Livingston and Mr. William Yeates, was appointed to secure one of the several buildings which the board had in view to make provision for the continuance of the mission work which has been conducted for the last few months in Barton Street Methodist Church.

At the conclusion of the meeting of the Mission Board a meeting of the Methodist ministers was held. Rev. H. G. Livingston read an interesting paper on "The Relation of the Church to Foreigners," pointing out that it was the duty of the church to instruct and instill in them the principles of the true life. sider the work among the Italians.

and instil in them the principles the true life.

Some discussion afterwards took place in which Rev. Dr. McKenzie, returned missionary from the east, contributed some valuable information regarding the missionary work being carried on in Japan.

an Indian.

(Special Wire to the Times.)
Brantford, Ont., Nov. 1.—Constable Garlow, charged at Police Court here this morning, with shooting with intent to injure Curtis Martin, pleaded not guilty, and was committed for trial. Bail was fixed at $200. Garlow said he had to shoot at Martin or be struck by a club with which Martin attacked him. The constable will be tried by a jury. Sam Turkey, one of the drunken Indians arrested by Garlow, at the festivities, was fined $20, and H. Jamieson, $10 and costs. Turkey refused to tell where he got the liquor. Two others were remanded. It is said bad blood exists between Garlow and the Martin family.

HIS DOINGS IN THE WEST.

Many Charges Against F. J. Vale, Under Arrest Here.

It Is Said That He Worked the Religious Scheme. Officer on His Way Here to Take Him Back.

"Hold for me; have written about this man." Those were the words of a telegram received by Chief Smith Saturday afternoon from the Chief the Northwest Mounted Police in Saskatchewan. The man referred to was F. J. Vale, ow being held here on a charge of for This morning the chief received the letter mentioned in telegram. The depredations alleged to have been carried on by the man in custody here The letter states that he is wanted on several charges for obtaining money by false pretence from many farmers in the Province of Saskatch-money by false pretence from many farmers in the Province of Saskatchewan.

Under the cloak of religion, Vale, it is alleged, has played on the credulity of farmers and obtained substantial sums. He is said to be a first-class pianist and knows all the Gospel hymns as well as he knows the alphabet. His method of working the farmers, the letter states, is to go to their homes, get well known and play the piano; get the family to join in the singing of the old hymns; then when he has satisfied the credulous ones, it is alleged he suddenly springs it on those who believe him that a relative has suddenly died in the east. Hamilton, it is said, he mostly mentioned. His next move was to say he was short of funds and to borrow some from the farmers saying he would benefit financially by the death of his relative in the east.

In several cases he showed letters, which he claimed had been sent from relatives. One letter he showed a farmer had, the address of 28 Chestnut avenue, which he said was where his sister lived.

Last Monday it was ascertained that he had bought a ticket for Hamilton. The chief of the N. W. M. P. wired the police in Fort William to arrest him on the arrival of the train there, but no word was received from them. It was then learned from the newspapers that Vale was arrested here and the telegram received by Chief Smith on Saturday is the result.

An officer of the N. W. M. P. left Regins on Saturday for this city and Chief Smith on Saturday is the result.

An officer of the N. W. M. P. left Regina on Saturday for this city and on his arrival here Vale will be at once taken back to face the charges preferred against him.

Enquiries made at the addresses on West avenue north and Chestnut avenue, where Vale said he boarded and had relatives, reveal the cast that he is unknown. He, however, must have known the city fairly well.
