While at work in the hold of the steamship Florida Friday afternoon, an old man named Joseph was struck on the head by a falling hatch and badly cut. The hatch is in two parts and only one half was up while the work of loading was going on. In some manner the sling used in lowering the freight caught the half of the hatch that had not been hoisted up, and placing it caused it to fall into the hold, grasping Carver's head and inflicting a severe wound. The old man was dazed for about two hours after the accident. Had the hatch struck him with full force he would have been instantly killed. Medical aid was promptly called in, and everything possible was done for the injured man.

A BAD ACCIDENT occurred at the residence of Mr. Joseph Peters, South Row, on Saturday night. It seems that in some way, probably by the pulling of the table cloth, a lamp on the table was accidentally upset by the children. The fire was extinguished by the use of water, but the little ones were so badly burned that two have since died—one Monday night and the other Tuesday morning. The other child, the youngest of the family, will recover. The names of the children who died were Adolph and Josephine, the former being three years of age and the latter five. The fire was extinguished before the house was very much damaged, but not in time to prevent the results above stated. Mr. Peters was not at home when the unfortunate accident occurred.

Mrs. Peters and the servant girl were the only occupants of the house except the children. Dr. Gallant was called in and did all that lay in his power for the little sufferers. Mr. and Mrs. Peters have the sympathy of all in the calamity that has overtaken them.—Ex.

The building on Queen Street, owned by Councillor Hughes and occupied as stores by Messrs. M. S. and J. Good Manufacturing Company, was somewhat damaged by fire about six o'clock Thursday morning. The fire started in the store and setting fire to the workbench near by. Once started the flames crept up along the wall separating the store and along the ceiling of the Singer establishment. It took about an hour's hard work on the part of the firemen to extinguish the fire. The Messrs. Goodstein had no insurance on their stock. The most damage their goods sustained was by water, and they will clear them out cheap. The bulk of the Singer Company's stock was removed to the street. The loss of the building is covered by insurance.
