

FROM EGYPT.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 9.—A great sensation has been produced in Turkish court and political circles by the revelations in the British parliament and Bismarck's speech of facts respecting Turkey which will make increased efforts to secure an alliance with England.

FAGGED OUT.

KORTI, March 9.—The rear guard of Buller's troops has arrived in a terribly fatigued condition. Gen. Wood having ordered the complete evacuation of Gakdul. Lord Berosford's naval brigade has arrived here.

WOLSELEY COMPLIMENTS THE TROOPS.

Wolseley today reviewed the Nile expeditionary force, including the troops of General Buller and Lord Berosford's naval brigade, and the Canadian voyageurs. Wolseley complimented the troops for the heroism and fortitude with which they faced the perils and hardships of the campaign, and especially thanked the voyageurs for their services. He presented his silver cigarette case to Engineer Benbow, of the naval brigade, as a tribute of admiration of the blue jacket's bravery in re-appearing, under a heavy fire, the steamer with his party after they had been wrecked while returning from Khartoum. The naval brigade is to be greatly augmented before the resumption of active operations.

DISSENTION AMONG THE REBELS. A messenger from Kordofan reports a rising against the authority of the Mahdi's uncle. There is great dissension and famine among the rebels. The Mahdi has gone to Albas island, 130 miles above Khartoum.

OVERWORKED. It is stated that the health of the employees of the Woolwich arsenal is failing, on account of the severe strain required to fill orders for ammunition.

OFF TO SUAKIM.

CAIRO, March 9.—Gen. Graham, commander of the Suakim expedition, started for Suakim today.

WHIT GRAMM WILL DO.

LONDON, March 9.—In the commons, Hartington, in moving a vote of 3,000 additional men for the army, said Gen. Graham's force would disperse the rebels, occupy Osman Digna's positions, and prevent the rebels from again concentrating. Graham would then open the route to Berber as far as possible. If he reaches Berber in time he would co-operate with Wolseley in his advance on Khartoum. The Suakim railway would be a purely military structure, but would, doubtless, eventually lead to the establishment of a permanent line.

SUAKIM, March 7.—A forward movement is expected on Monday, to form a camp five miles distant for the English force.

THE MAHDI'S PERIL.

KORTI, March 10.—Natives report that the Mahdi left Khartoum because he fears he will be assassinated by some of his many enemies who are jealous of his success.

SIKHS ATTACKED BY ARABS.

SUAKIM, March 10.—Transport bearing Gen. Freemantle, the Grenadier Guards, and 400 Indian cavalry arrived today.

Hostile Arabs last evening attacked a number of the Sikh (Indian) regiment, stabbing three of them, two mortally.

DOUBLE PAY WANTED.

KORTI, March 10.—The Canadian voyageurs offer to re-engage for service in the autumn if given double pay.

THE MAHDI REPUTED.

LONDON, March 11.—A Suakim dispatch says Mohammedan native troops from India now assembled there unanimously repudiate the Mahdi. They say he is not even a Moslem, and they are disgusted with his pretensions to be considered the successor of the Prophet. Newspaper correspondents are leaving Korti, concluding the campaign is over.

Dunlop.

Mrs. John Barker is visiting at Exeter this week.

An owl raided one of our barn-yards last week, and captured three geese.

Two twelve pound salmon trout were captured by local fishermen last week.

Mrs. McArthur has returned from a month's visit to friends at Grand Bend.

Mrs. Thos. Sowerby and son, of Goderich, visited friends here last week.

Sign of Spring.—The familiar "caw-caw" of a crow was heard on the 2nd inst.

The mill whistle is again heard, and things are humming in the lumber line. The staff is nearly the same as last year.

Geo. Swanson, of Goderich, paid a friendly visit to A. Allen last week, and had a cosy fireside chat with our deputy-reve.

Mrs. Allen has returned from visiting friends at Exeter and Hensall. The folks in the former village have not forgotten how to make Devonshire cream.

A gentleman from Muskoka, now here, says THE SIGNAL comes to him weekly, like a news letter, and that to him it is of more interest than the city weeklies. Send THE SIGNAL to your absent friends. $1 will get it for the remainder of the year.

SPLENDID ICE.—Our popular host, J. J. Wright, of the Point Farm, Leeburn, has secured his season's crop of ice. He brought down to mine host of the Exchange as a present, a neat block 24 inches in length, which was beautifully clear and transparent. Mr. Wright says the ice is the best, but most difficult to handle, he has yet taken.

The road was full of pitch-holes last week, but J. H. Barker, our new path-master, held a consultation with our engineer, and they decided upon running a new track from Joe Martin's corner to the top of Macdonald's hill, which they did with the help of the gallant greys. Upsets were numerous prior to this move, but now the road is in excellent condition.

The British army is to be increased by 12,000 men.
