

Man's Narrow Escape.

While Mr. Moses Kelly, cooper at Bowring's premises, was crossing Water Street on his way to breakfast at 8 a.m. to-day he narrowly escaped being killed by a street car going west. He did not notice the car until he was hit in the shoulder and thrown one side. He says the motorist did not ring his gong and that it was fortunate that the car was going slowly. Motorists should be careful to give warning to citizens of the approach of trams.

Harmony Strikes Rock

The S. S. Harmony, the Moravian Mission ship, Capt. Jackson, returned to this port from Nain via Hopedale, at seven o'clock last evening. The ship left here the latter part of August with a load of supplies for the Labrador stations included between Hopedale and Cape Chidley. When going up to Nain on Sept. the 1st, in the evening, the Harmony struck on a rock in the run about 9 miles from the harbor. She at once began to leak, and all the pumps had to be brought into requisition. She struck on the port bow down near the keel. Capt. Jackson ran her up to Nain and beached the ship at high tide after shifting the cargo aft and discharging a large part of it. Next day at low tide the hole was visible and proved to be a bad smash. Capt. Jackson set the men to work and made temporary repairs with canvas. When the work was completed and the Harmony floated off Capt. Jackson found that the job was as good as could be expected, and very little pumping was now required. Under the circumstances, however, he believed it the wisest course not to continue north to come to St. John's for permanent dock repairs. On the way up he put into Hopedale where ballast in the shape of 140 barrels trout and 16 puncheons of oil was taken on board. The trip was made here in fine weather and with very little pumping. The ship will go on dock to-morrow. Capt. Jackson reports several Newfoundland schooners with full loads of fish. From Musford to Cut Throat the fishery has been good. Nearly all the vessels are on the way home.

Here and There.

DIED AT BOSTON.—Mr. White, whom we referred to last week as being very ill at Boston, died there on Friday last and buried on Sunday.

CANKER AT MR. BUFFETT.—People in from Harbor Buffet, P.B., by yesterday's express say that potato canker is very prevalent and that not a place of ground where these vegetables are raised but what is more or less affected. The same applies to other parts of Placentia Bay.

LARACY'S have just got in Men's Work Shirts, all Black, Black and White Stripes, and Fancy, from 60c. each. Blue Denim and White Duck Overalls, Men's Tweed Pants, from $1.00 a pair. At LARACY'S, 345 & 347 Water Street, opposite the Post.

SCHOONER STRIKES ROCK.—We learn by the Harmony that the schr. Levant, Blackwood, master, of Westleyville, went ashore near Davis' Inlet some weeks ago and was pretty badly damaged. She was at Hopedale when the Harmony was there last week, having been got off the rocks. All her fish and oil was discharged and she was repaired. After the cargo was taken on board she left for home.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Do you laugh? No, that's not a funny question. If you think it is, just pause a moment and look over your acquaintances, and I'm sure you'll find that there are many of them who really do laugh. Most people smile, and once in awhile chuckle or giggle, but the hearty, natural, unrestrained laugh that makes you want to laugh too, even if you don't know what the joke is—well, that's about as rare as a man who doesn't measure success by money or a woman who doesn't judge other women by their clothes. And because of its rarity, the gift of laughter is an invaluable social asset. A man was telling me recently how he happened to spend an evening at a summer boarding house where there were half a dozen girls and not a man but himself. He told how he was introduced to the group, and what nice girls they were, and what a shame it was there weren't some nice men to amuse them. "Did you see any of them again?" I asked. "Yes, I was back there the next week and I took one of them canoeing," he said. It was an interesting opportunity to inspect the psychology of a man's choice, and find out just why, with the pick of six, he chose that one. I put the question. "Why did you

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations. It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness. To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use. In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. Don't let a dealer deceive you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

Fads and Fashions.

Long gloves are leaping into new popularity. Solid greens are promised a decided popularity. Coiffures are going back to the Greek fashion. Sleeves show more fulness at the top and less length. The scarf of fashion is usually of the color of the hat. Colors generally are less vivid, and black is to be much worn. Hair ribbons for girls are narrower and the bows less conspicuous. Everything that is not black or sombre now seems to be striped. Tunics are quite long and are edged with heavy fringe of silk or beads. Handbags are often made to match the gowns with which they are carried. Veils as well as scarves and shawls of black Chantilly lace are very smart. Fillet and square mesh veils are beloved by the Paris woman of fashion. Every new gown with the high waist line has a sash or girdle of some sort. It will be a brown winter in men's attire—with a general liking for soft hats. Black and white veillings are chiefly in favor. Very wide velvet ribbons have a vogue for hat trimmings, scarves and sashes. Facings of bright satin, silk or velvet are popular on white or black dresses in Paris. Already it is evident that hats and skirts of this season are to be far less eccentric than last. Overwaists and regular waists for fall are mainly of the peasant or body-and-sleeve-in-one type. The uncured ostrich plume is a new-comer in fashion, with already considerable popularity. Black and white striped silk is an effective trimming for suits of the fashionable new ochre shade. Byron and Dutch collars both continue in favor. Jabots are especially popular in the lace varieties. In hosiery the tendency is to very sheer plain styles with a moderate indulgence in lace or openwork hose. Tosca net, black plaided with threads in Scotch colors and designs will be much used in dressy waists. Belts of leather, kid, braid, etc., are to be worn with the new waists; patent leather seems the present leader. Ruffles of the dress goods, seven or eight inches wide and only just full enough to prevent "hooping", are also favoured again. In dressy gowns it is thought that the high or Empire waistline will again be popular since some of the latest models show that tendency. The beauty of new black and white costumes lies in the transparency of

Clarenville Notes

Clarenville bridge, which is 150 feet in length, is now undergoing extensive repairs. The bridge was in a very bad condition and really became a great public danger, when representation was made to the Hon. Col. Secretary who succeeded in having an amount appropriated to meet the present emergency. A feeling of general satisfaction is manifest to-day because this work, so greatly needed, is being so rapidly pushed forward towards completion. The suave Chairman of the Road Board here superintends the job, and Mr. John Adey has the oversight of the mechanical operations, while all the parties employed seem to be doing their best to push the work along. The framework of the bridge has been put in proper shape, some new beams have been supplied, and now a breadth of six feet is being covered with two-inch plank, sawed by Mr. Walter Tilly. The work when thoroughly completed, we have no doubt, will bear inspection.

We notice that the new day school teacher has commenced her work ere, and that her labours are already beginning to be appreciated.

The Methodist preacher, Rev. Mr. S. Taylor, preached here last Sunday, and the teacher, Miss Hodnot, played the organ. Miss Hodnot gives promise of more than ordinary usefulness in connection with the struggling little church in this settlement.

It is rumored that a pie sociable will be the next public function to take place here.

The man who received injury to one of his hands in connection with train work recently is staying in quarters at the station and is improving under the careful attention of Dr. Leslie.

All kinds of root crops in this neighborhood are excellent. The hay crop is about the best on record.

The fishery here, as in many other places, has been a total failure the past summer, and the few people who used to rely somewhat on this industry have now directed their efforts in other directions. Railway labour is the great panacea for the people here; it provides large numbers of them with the means of employment and inspires life and energy in all the activities of Clarenville and adjacent settlements.

Lumber mills are operated rather extensively here. There are seven of these now in operation and with push and hard work the owners manage to get out a livelihood. They are an optimistic class and always appear to be impressed with the idea that "This better on before."

VISITOR.

Clarenville, Sept. 13, 1910.

St. Joseph, Levis, July 14, 1903. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Gentlemen,—I was badly kicked by my horse last May and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was black as 't. I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After using three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT I was perfectly cured, so that I could start on the road. JOS. DUBES, Commercial Traveler.

NEW CLUB ROOMS.—The members of the People's Club have taken over the Whittier Hotel and now have a staff of waiters and paper hangers to put the rooms in condition. When ready for occupancy they will be amongst the best in the city.

The black, so that it seems not so much a trimming as shadow. The long wide scarves to be worn about the neck have been received with delight. They are in many effects, many being richly beaded.

Pearl buttons, both white and smoked, are in great demand, and the assortment, is replete with fancy and unique shapes and designs.

Head scarves are of black or white light-weight satin or of Persian chiffon. Some of these show the exquisite real cashmere designs and colors.

While there is a perceptible curve to some portions of the new coats, the predominating trend is not far away from the tube styles of last year.

Artificial roses are in great vogue. They appear everywhere in little clusters and wreaths of tiny pink like crimson ramblers, made in silk tissue or rice paper.

Beaded trimmings are the novelties of the season, and are masses of color more or less wholly of beads of glass, wood, rubber, silver, gilt, copper and porcelain.
