M. G. Winter, Exor., vs. Nicholas J. Vinnicombe.

Mr. Furlong, K.C., asks leave to amend the defence by the statement that "certain services were performed and $100 paid therefor." Sir J. S. Winter, K.C., says amendment is embarrassing.
The Judge delivered judgment, saying: "I find that there was a fraudulent representation on the part of the deceased. I order that the document be delivered up and cancelled. I order an injunction to issue to restrain the executor from dealing with the instrument. I order that the defendant pay the costs of the suit, and the question of the amount to be paid for the services of the deceased be referred to the Master for determination."

FLOUR GOES UP—Some of the large flour mills of Manitoba have advanced their price of flour 10 cents per barrel since yesterday. This is owing to the heavy export demand on wheat, the closing of navigation and the advance in freights. It is thought the lowest point in the flour market has been reached.

Man Almost Drowned.

At 10.30 last night a man named Martin went overboard the Rowan at A. J. Harvey's premises and being very far gone in liquor he narrowly escaped going into the waters of the harbor over the pier at the wharf. He then came on shore and walked over the pier at the head of the wharf. Alexander, which is lying there. He made no outcry and the police were dark, there being no one working about, those who rescued him did so with great difficulty. Capt. Cave of H. M. Customs heard the splash in the water and he with watchman Peter Keefe of the Roselland after some trouble got a boat and taking a couple of turns of a rope round the man's body got him ashore. He was unconscious when found and was floating on the surface. He was fully 15 minutes in the water when he revived he was very ill but sobered, and his escape from death was a narrow one.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURE DISTEMPER.

Requiescat in Pace.

After having lingered for months by her bedside, the Angel of Death, at last folded in his wings and bore to God's fair land at 8.30 last evening the Soul of Sister M. Thomas Reilly, of the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square.

Amiable and unassuming, kind and obliging, Sister M. Thomas had gained for herself many friends and her loss will be keenly felt by all who knew and loved her. Her religious community will miss a devoted and affectionate companion, the little children a gentle teacher, her family a fondly attached sister, but faith can raise the veil which hides the Great Beyond, from mortals and make us hear a new voice added to the heavenly choir, which sings the eternal sanctus, and see among the God's court, the soul of our dear departed one, redeemed by the Precious Blood, chastened by suffering patiently borne; now interesting powerfully for her loved ones with Him from whom neither life nor death, nor things present nor things to come can ever separate her more.

Sister M. Thomas, the youngest daughter of the late Thomas O'Reilly, Esq., J. P. of Placentia, was born in that town 34 years ago. In 1899 she bade adieu to the world, having heard in her soul the Saviour's invitation, "Follow Me." In 1902 she made her religious profession at Cathedral Square; she worthily wore the habit of a Presentation nun, edifying all by her deep faith, her generosity in God's service and her patience under bodily sufferings, and when the end came she went forth rejoicing to her Maker and her God.

Sister M. Thomas leaves three brothers—Rev. J. J. O'Reilly, D. D., formerly of this city, now doing missionary work in St. John, N. B.; William O'Reilly, Esq., merchant of the same town and three sisters—Mrs. C. N. Boyle, of Sydney, Mrs. M. J. Nugent, of Gambo, Mrs. W. J. Nugent, of Philadelphia. Rgt. Rev. Mgr. Roche, V. G., a cousin of the family, was constant in attendance on the dying nun whom he fortified with all the rites of Holy Church. To her relatives and friends we extend our sympathy in this time of sorrow.

Sciatic Rheumatism

Unable to work or sleep—Six years of suffering—Cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Mr. Alex. Ethier, Jr., Clarence Creek, Russell Co., Ont., writes:—"My nervous system was run down to such an extent that I suffered a great deal from sciatic rheumatism, and at times was unable to sleep, and had no appetite. Nothing seemed to build up my system until I made use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After having used also 1200 ounces of this medicine I feel like a new man. I can walk all night, and great deal of work, have a good appetite and sleep well every night. When you have tired of experience, you can turn to Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food knowing that it is a most beneficial result. But you must get the genuine, bearing portrait of signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., etc., at all Dealers of Edmondson, Inc. Co., Toronto. Write for free copy Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

VISITED PENITENTIARY—Yesterday afternoon the Grand Jury visited the Penitentiary and were conducted through the different wards and apartments by Capt. Parsons. The jury were much pleased with the evidence of cleanliness, order and discipline which they observed in the institution.

BLOCK FELL ON HIS HEAD—A young man named Sullivan, working at Parker & Monro's Shoe Factory, Alexander Street, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. A block fell on his head and made a deep wound in his scalp. He came to Mr. P. O'Mara's drug store and had the wound dressed.

This morning the police were informed that Joseph Delaney, of the north shore of Conception Bay, captain of the sch. Vesta, lying at Reer Bros. wharf, is missing. He left the ship 48 hours ago and since then there has been no tidings of him. The police are to-day making enquiries about him, and it is feared that he is overboard and was drowned.

People who arrived from there by last night's train report that on Wednesday night some person or persons forced open the door of Mr. Nicholas Mooney's store at Branch, St. Mary's Bay, and stole therefrom a considerable quantity of codfish, amounting to several quintals. Const. O'Neill went there from St. John's and investigated and it is expected that arrests will be made shortly. The burglary was similar to that committed at St. John's recently.
