The Evening Chit-Chat

By MARY CANNON

A woman in our neighborhood who has recently had her youngest daughter—the last of a family of six — marry and leave the home nest, has had a nervous breakdown and is in a sanitarium.
And she blames her trouble to loneliness, pure and simple.

"I was always used to young life around the house," she says, "and I missed it so. It seemed to me as if everything had just stopped."

Another woman who had lost one child by death and two by marriage has taken to spending much time at the home of a neighbour who was just a bare acquaintance in the old days.

"I can't see what has come over Ellen to be so intimate with Mrs. L.," comments one of her old friends. "She never used to have any use for her."

"Ah," responds a wiser woman.
"You forget that Mrs. L. has three daughters growing up. Ellen really goes there to see them, to talk to them and their friends. She's just hungry for young life."

I don't think that young people as a rule realize how large a part their happiness, their delight in living, their vitality and exuberance, their plannings, ambitions and their wonderful power of saying "Someday," play in the older folks' lives.

With the eternal selfishness of youth, they seize the stage for themselves, crowding the older generation into the auditorium to be their audience, and then, when they are tired of their own playing, they run lightly away and quite forget that their audience, now grown quite old and stiff to climb back onto the stage and become actors themselves again, are left to face drearily at the dispiriting vacancy of an empty stage.

Now it seems to me that just as the pauper of worldly goods becomes the responsibility of the community and is supplied with the necessities of physical life out of a general store, so the pauper of young life becomes
and should be supplied with enough young life to keep them from social starvation, out of the general store.

And I think those who should take charge of this responsibility, who should be the "overseers of the poor" for this kind of poverty, are the young people of the neighbourhood, the "crowd" to which the missing young folks belonged.

I think the sight of any of these empty homes should be a challenge to all the young folks who pass them to "run" in for a few minutes: to carry their own joys and ambitions there as well as into their own homes; to go occasionally to ask for news of the distant ones; and always to carry news there when they come to them.

I know it's difficult, young folks for you to imagine further and see yourself lonesome and depressed because these imaginary beings, having become the centre of your universe, empty.

Nevertheless, all this is very likely to happen to you some day.

And you'll remember that, won't you, the next time you are passing one of these empty homes that call to you to come in?

Red Cannon

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is rigid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves and so gives us HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this nonalcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

When winter winds are raging fierce, with snowdrifts in their track, it's mighty nice to have a tierce of huddle in the shack. Then one can sit before the fire in peace and joy, gadzooks, and knock some music from his lyre, or read detective books. The howling of the bughouse storm, that gets the poor man's goat, but makes his cottage seem more warm, from trouble more remote. He sees the snowy gusts career outside his cheerful hut, and comfortable and serene reflections fill his nut. He sat down a plunk or two when'er he drew his pay, and now it doesn't make him blue when comes a stormy day. Across the street there lives a skate who never saves a red, and when bad weather fills a date, his children howl for bread. A poor, dejected, sad-eyed drove, their misery's intense; they shiver round an empty stove, and wish their pa had senses. It matters not how poor or fine may be the toiler's pay, he ought to put some down in brine, to meet the stormy day.

Cold-boiled potatoes diced and added to an equal quantity of canned salmon and a few chopped olives make a foundation for a tasty salad. Serve with mayonnaise.

Why Not be Well and Strong

When weak and run down DR.
CHASE'S NERVE FOOD will help you back to health.

This letter tells of two women who have proven this.

Mrs. D. Stott, Cobourg, Ont., writes:
"After recovering from typhoid fever I was left in a very low state of health. I was weak, nervous and not able to do any work. A friend of mine, Mrs. G. M. Brown, had used DR.
CHASE'S NERVE FOOD and told me that it benefited her wonderfully. I took courage and began the use of the medicine. After taking the first box I began to feel an improvement in health and now after using four boxes I am completely cured. I now feel like myself once more and believe that I can attribute the cure to Dr.
CHASE'S NERVE FOOD."

Life is too short to spend weeks or months dragging out a miserable existence of weakness and suffering.
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures by forming new rich blood and building up the system. You can depend on it to benefit you, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Wedding Bells.

LEWIS—BURSEY.

The wedding of Mr. Joshua LeDrew, son of Abraham W. LeDrew, and Miss May Bursey, daughter of William Bur-sey, took place on Thursday night at 8 o'clock, at 10 Bond Street. The bride was given away by her father.
The bridesmaids were the Misses Hobbs and Hines who were becomingly dressed for the occasion. The happy couple were united in marriage by the Rev. W. H. Webber.

WHITE—PAYNE.

A pretty wedding was held at the C. E. Cathedral, at 4 p.m. Wednesday, when Mr. A. W. White, of New Perlican, led to the altar Miss Mary J.
Payne, of Aquaforte. Rev. J. Brinton officiated, and the bride, who was neatly attired, was assisted by Miss Little Rice, while the groom was attended by Mr. S. Coish. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. A. Horwood, Bar-ter's Hill, and a very pleasant time spent. The happy pair left for their future home, New Perlican, on Thursday morning's train. The Telegram extends congratulations.

HEALTH DEPT. REPORT. Five cases of scarlet fever, one each of typhoid fever and diphtheria were reported to the Health Department during the week just past. In the hospital there are ten cases of scarlet fever, five diphtheria and five typhoid.

Defends Mr. English.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—I generally read the editorials in our newspapers, and heretofore have considered and believed such a column to be of interest to the vast public, and to deal with some question of interest to the reading community.

I was somewhat surprised on reading the editorial in last night's "Chronicle" to glean the most important fact that Mr. McGrath makes a public matter out of a private feud, I refer to the English-McGrath controversy of two days ago.

I am not personally acquainted with Mr. English, and the subject on which he writes—a correction of Mr. Mc-Grath's new book—does not interest me at all, but I feel it but due to a citizen, and a matter of fair play, to take up my humble pen and wield it in Mr. English's defence.

Vituperation isn't nice, and barely venial during election times, but when scathing, cutting, and immediate infliction of personal wrath is made on a man in the editorial columns of a newspaper, and all because that individual has thought it proper to correct some supposed errors, it is time then to raise a defence and guard from such continuity.

I think, Mr. Editor, Mr. English, has a perfect right to his own opinion, and the fearless manner in which he has given those opinions to the public has something manly in it. After all, Mr. McGrath may be an excellent political campaigner, but as to his pencil of past, present or to come-here—are doubts.

A little learning is a dangerous thing, quotes the scribe—so it is, so is a little authority, and a little authority in the hands of some men is like a supply of thunder bolts in possession of some angry god.

Mr. English, I understand, was employed on the reportorial staff of the Chronicle—so were a number of other excellent young men—for a while.
The fact of Mr. English having to leave the staff is no stigma on his literary escutcheon, the fact of his having disagreed with Mr. McGrath on the analysis of some mineral finds in this country, does not deceive the public, nor make Mr. McGrath's star any brighter, with English's but a poor gleam.

I have no doubt, Mr. Editor, that Mr.
McGrath's new book is a very nice one—for myself I think the binding excellent and in this age of "clipping and scissors" success one would almost be tempted to try the road to Parnassus oneself.

In conclusion then, and this was not undertaken as a long letter, I shall get a copy of this new wonder in book form, fortunately I am not learned enough in the great chemical branches to be able to judge between what Mr. McGrath says and what Mr. Mc-Grath should say in his work, but, sir, I have discerned sufficient to mark that Mr. McGrath has not done himself or his book any good by his virtuous outburst of last evening.

Yours sincerely,

EX-REPORTER.

NEVER HAD ITS EQUAL

Rochester, N.Y. Man Found Something Good in Canada.

Mr. Thos. Johnston, whose home is in Rochester, N.Y., 44 Tremont Street, is enthusiastic over one Canadian product at least. He says:

"While visiting in Millbrook, Ont., I was suffering from a sprained knee, and could get nothing to help me until my father gave me a bottle of Egyptian Liniment, which relieved me in a few minutes. I have never had anything to equal it in my life. I am sure if your liniment was introduced to the people of Rochester it would sell like hot cakes."

Quick work is one of the strong points of Douglas's Egyptian Liniment, it goes right to the spot.

It stops bleeding at once. It prevents sprain, flesh or inflammation, and is a positive safeguard against blood poisoning. It relieves all kinds of aches and soreness.
25c. at all dealers. Free sample on request. Douglas & Co., Napawec, Ont.
