BRITISH AMERICAN COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
PRIZE PENMANSHIP!
Superior Advantages Offered!

THE attention of young men looking forward to mercantile life is earnestly requested to the internal arrangements of this College, which afford every possible advantage and facility for acquiring a thorough practical knowledge of business life and business habits. The great characteristics of this institution is its actual business system. It is not only the first College in British America in which the system was established, but likewise the only one in which that system is typically, practically and efficiently carried out. The result is that any youth who passes carefully through the course is ready on getting his diploma to take his place behind the accountant's desk. Both, therefore, by right of priority and unexampled success this institution has secured in fact what by its name it professes to be—THE BRITISH AMERICAN COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

One of the direct means of attaining and holding this high position, is the constant and varied selection of thoroughly competent, conscientious and energetic teachers, in each department. In the Writing Department the First Prizes for Business Penmanship were awarded to us at the Provincial Exhibition of 1865, 1866, and 1867, the only occasion on which we competed. As this honor undoubtedly places this College at the top of the wheel, we shall always strive to maintain that superiority in this, as in all other branches of study which are characteristic of the institution. Plain legible business writing is the style to which we have ever given the most prominent place, our motto being "a business hand for a business man."

The time required to complete the full course varies considerably according to the attendance, attention and ability of each student. Young men, however, are earnestly cautioned against the injudicious practice of hurrying through the course from the mistaken idea that they will thus be gained by the saving of money in the item of course. Infinitely more advantages would be obtained by the student, since his full course of tuition is already paid for, to attend the comparatively small additional expense of a few weeks' board in order to make himself completely master of the course, and thus by a small present outlay, qualify himself for some lucrative situation. The evidence that such haste entails is highly detrimental not only to the student himself, but also to the College where he graduates, and besides it brings upon Commercial Colleges generally, the odium of such haste, and the resulting loss of credit to the prevailing system as an inducement to students is most deceptive and highly reprehensible.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The tenth anniversary of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, in Erin Village, will be celebrated on Sunday, the 26th instant. Divine service will commence at half-past 10 a.m., and at half-past 6 p.m. The Rev. C. Lavell, M.A., chairman of the Guelph District, will officiate. There will be a Soiree on the following Monday evening, the proceeds of which it is designed to employ in assisting to liquidate the debt that remains against the church.

MR. McCORMIE'S PRIZE OX "BLACK PRINCE."—Mr. R. S. Brodie sends us the following:—"As supplementary to the information regarding this animal conveyed in my letter in the Mercury two weeks ago, I beg to state that "Black Prince" was sold for £120 sterling to Messrs. Lidstone & Scarlett, of London, reserving the baron for Her Majesty the Queen, to whom the beast was offered by the exhibitor."

KNOWS WHERE TO GET A GOOD ARTICLE.—We heard the other day that Messrs. A. Thomson & Co., clothiers of this town, have recently filled a large order for a gentleman in Buffalo, of woollen underclothing. The goods are of that class which Messrs. Thomson & Co. have been selling during the season, and are infinitely superior to any that can be procured in the States. The gentleman had to pay carriage and the heavy duty in addition to the price of the goods, but he did so cheerfully, knowing that he would get full satisfaction in the wear of the article. The fact speaks volumes for the quality of our Canadian manufactures, and the enterprise and character of the firm who supplied them.

NEW STORE IN MIMOSA.—Mr. Murdoch Craig, long a resident of Guelph, has opened the store in Mimosa recently occupied by Mr. J. Worden, and has filled it with a large and choice stock of dry goods, cloths, clothing, groceries, hardware, &c., which having bought on the best terms he is prepared to sell cheap for cash. Mr. Craig has had long experience in the business of storekeeping, and our readers in Erin and Eramosa who patronize him will find that he is attentive and obliging, that his goods are of the best quality, and as cheap as they can be bought for in Guelph. We wish Mr. Craig all success, and hope the people in the section will give him their patronage.

SOIREE IN HARRISTON.—A soiree in aid of the funds of the Sabbath School in connection with Knox's Church, Harriston, was held on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst. There was an excellent attendance of both old and young, the scholars present numbering over a hundred. The refreshments were provided by the ladies of the congregation, and were of the best, and in great abundance. The Rev. Mr. McLennan, pastor of the church, occupied the chair, and delivered a most interesting introductory address. Appropriate speeches were also given by Mr. Dewey, of the New Connection Methodist body, and Rev. Mr. Anderson of the Presbyterian Church, Rosyth. The children sang several select pieces of music during the evening. Altogether the proceedings were of a most interesting and pleasant character. The proceeds amounted to $42.84.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY.—The Presbytery of Guelph, in connection with the Canada Presbyterian Church met in Knox's church, Guelph, yesterday (Tuesday). There was a good attendance of members. In the afternoon a long and interesting discussion took place on the overture in reference to the organ question from the congregation of Knox's church, Montreal, and remitted to Presbytries by the Synod. A motion for leaving it optional with congregations to introduce instrumental music into the service was voted down, there being nine for, and sixteen against it. An examination was made into the condition of congregations in arrears with their ministers' stipends, and it was found that generally all such debts had been wiped out. Some other routine business was transacted, when the Presbytery adjourned to meet in Guelph on the second Tuesday in March.

Licensed Victuallers' Association.
The regular quarterly meeting of the Ontario Licensed Victuallers' Association was held in O'Connor's Wellington Hotel, on Tuesday last. A large number of delegates from various towns and cities throughout the Province, arrived in the course of the day, and were met and welcomed by Committees of the Guelph Branch of the Association, appointed for the purpose. The business was transacted in the afternoon; and at half-past 7 in the evening, about 40 persons sat down to a dinner prepared in the best style of the Anglo-American, and those acquainted with the hotel will consider that this is no light testimony to the excellence of the repast. A large majority of the guests were from beyond the limits of the Town; eight of the members of the Licensed Victuallers' Association of Guelph were present, besides a few others.

The chair was occupied by the President, Mr. Brown, of Toronto, and the Vice-chair by Mr. James, of Hamilton. As soon as dinner had been fairly disposed of the Chairman proposed "The Queen," which was drunk with every appropriate demonstration of loyalty, the Company singing the national anthem. He next gave "The Prince and Princess of Wales," and before it was drunk the Grand Secretary of the Association begged to inform the company that the Prince of Wales was the special patron of the Licensed Victuallers' Association of England. "The Army, Navy and Volunteers," being briefly responded to by Mr. McKee of Barrie. Mr. Barge, of Mitchell, sang "The Englishman."

The Chairman then introduced the next toast, "Prosperity to the Licensed Victuallers' Association." The fact that the Association had had its beginning in Toronto on account of a circular sent by the License Inspector to the Hotel-keepers to induce them to become united. He had been advised to this by the Police Commission, and these gentlemen have regretted that step ever since. It was but a small fire that was kindled, yet it has spread over Canada. He (the Chairman) was proud of being the head of the Association. He was proud of the meeting that had been held to-day, and whatever effects may follow from previous efforts those of this meeting would be felt for years to come, and would go far towards placing the members of the Association in their proper position. They object to being looked down upon; they want to take their place as good and loyal citizens, (and they are loyal), carry on their business like honest men, and without being subjected to unnecessary disadvantages, or being treated as if they were dogs.

After the toast had been drunk, the Vice-Chairman proposed "The Legislative Assembly of Ontario," and next "The health of the Chairman." That gentleman, he said, had come to Hamilton like a roaring lion, and had roused them to a sense of the necessity of becoming united. He (the speaker) had joined the Association and had never regretted it, and he hoped he would be joined in wishing health, wealth and prosperity to the man who had done so much towards bringing them all together. Drunk amid loud cheering, the Chairman responded humorously, comparing himself to Robinson Crusoe, for in looking round the room he might consider himself "monarch of all he surveyed," as nearly all belonged to the Association. He told of the strict watch that was kept upon "the boss" (himself) by the Police Magistrate, of Toronto, how if a light was seen in his bar-room after 7 o'clock on Saturday night, he was brought up and fined; and once his license was suspended from Saturday night till Monday morning. He apologized for not being able to respond more appropriately, but having come of an aristocratic family, and inheriting the gout, of which he had an attack a few days ago, he felt indisposed, and unable to say more.

Mr. James Smith, of London, then sang with sweet, touching pathos, "Twenty Years Ago," and afterwards proposed "The Agricultural, Mechanical and Commercial Interests of Guelph and Guelph Township."

Mr. Stone responded in brief, returning thanks for the honor. He had done something towards improving the stock in this part of the country, but he would much rather produce the animals than talk of them.

Mr. McEvoy, of Toronto, sang the "White Squirrel," and Mr. Fleming, of Brantford, being called upon for a song confessed his vocal inability, but delivered what might be called a recitation, which was far more entertaining. It was a story, told in rhyme, of a Frenchman on tramp from Toronto to Brantford, who being weary and hungry called at a wayside inn, and asked for some bread and cheese, and beer. What he had had out of the cheese he put in his trousers' pocket along with what money he possessed, and on retiring to bed put the trousers under his pillow. Presently the rats came swarming about him, nibbling the cheese and funneling over his face until he became so frightened that he called the landlord, and demanded his bill, as he was going to travel. The bill was an shilling, and after some discussion about the rate the landlord said he would give a good deal to rid of them. The Frenchman told him he would put him on a plan; which was to give them all a supper of bread and cheese and beer, and then charge them ten shillings, and he would never see them again. The broken English of Johnny Craipo was so well imitated, and the gestures were so appropriate, that the company indulged in a laugh that was not forced but hearty.

Mr. McKay, of Woodstock, was next called. He said he belonged to a people that were seldom represented on drinking occasions, but were always present when the business was to be done—he meant the Highlanders. He then sang in Highland English an ludicrous parody on "Johnny Cope," and afterwards introduced Dr. Turquand, who he said had been a member of the Woodstock council for ten years, and was friendly to the Association. He had discontinued informers, and in two cases where fines had been imposed he had contributed his mite towards paying them.

Dr. Turquand said he had come here at Mr. McKay's solicitations, and that gentleman told him he would be obliged to say, and was answered, that he would be obliged to pitch into Duncan. Well, he was pitched into Duncan—what next? Go against the Saturday night law. That law he disliked too. This was the first time he had been in Guelph, but if he lived it would not be the last. He was President of the Ontario Medical Council and by the efforts of Dr. Clarke, the next meeting of the Council was to be held in Guelph, where the Doctor informed them their horses could be accommodated, if not themselves. The Council of Woodstock can make good laws, but they cannot enforce them; they form a first-rate legislature, but a very bad executive. As for yesterday evening in the Temperance Hall, which was so well filled by a most respectable audience. The proceeding were both interesting and instructive, and the report read by the secretary gave a most cheering account of the society's work, during the past year, and of its present position. The adoption of the report was moved by Rev. Mr. Howie, in a few congratulatory remarks, seconded by Mr. Joseph Ryan and carried unanimously.

The election of office bearers for the present year then took place, and the following are the names:—President, Alex. Thomson, Esq.; Vice-presidents, Messrs. James Ferguson, John Ryan, and Daniel Krebs, and all ministers who are members of the society, hold the position of Honorary Vice-presidents; Secretary, Mr. Alex. Thorburn; Treasurer, Mr. J. T. Brill. The members of the Managing Committee are, Messrs. Millington, Kirkland, Arms, McIride, Molton, Waterston, Sulley, Johns, Howie, W. C. Ferguson, Brown, and Lawrence.

The President afterwards mentioned that he had received a letter from the late Mayor, Peter Gow, Esq., M. P., P., urging the duty of having the petition against the licensed Victuallers' Act of Incorporation, speedily removed by law and order-loving people, and sent down to Parliament at an early date. Afterwards a subscription list was opened, for the purpose of clearing off the remaining debt, and in a few minutes fifty-six dollars had been subscribed, not only wiping out the debt, but leaving a balance to be carried to the general purpose fund.

The society begins its operations this year in a very prosperous condition, and we trust will be the means of doing much good in our midst, and with all our heart we wish it "God speed."

Soiree in Duff's Church, Paslinch.
[From our Correspondent.]
The Soiree in connection with Duff's Church, East Paslinch, came off on Thursday evening last, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, was, in point of numbers, a complete success. Indeed so large was the attendance that the Managing Committee found it necessary to use the galleries as well as the body of the church, to accommodate the stalwart lads, bonnie lassies, and old folks too, who patronized the Soiree. Too much praise cannot be accorded the committee for the excellent and systematic manner in which the entire programme was carried out from the heating and lighting of the church to the serving of the refreshments—which, by the way, were in abundance and of the best quality—and reflected great credit on the maids and matrons who provided them.

After all had partaken of the "good things" provided so liberally, the Rev. Mr. McDonald, pastor of the church, took the chair, and then began one of the richest oratorical treats it ever was our good fortune to hear. Rev. Mr. McLean, of Nairn, was the first speaker, and he addressed himself especially to the young folks, and spoke in his usual kind, affable and able way. He was succeeded by our old friend, the pioneer of Sunday Schools in this locality, Mr. Thomas Atkins, D. Stirling, Esq., M.P., then gave us a very interesting account of the appearance and apparent abilities of the representatives in Parliament from the Maritime Provinces, enlarging on the pursuits, wealth, enterprise and popularity of our Bluenosed brethren. He was succeeded by Rev. Mr. Cameron, of Acton, who, notwithstanding his dislike to Soirees, made a first-rate speech in English, and towards the close of the proceedings, at the urgent request of the chairman, gave a short address in Gaelic, producing nothing but laughter among those who were unacquainted with the language. But it was evident from the eager looks of the Highland people that the sentiments of the speaker found an echo in their hearts, and it was rather amusing to hear one of them say, as he nudged another in the ribs, "Hech, Roderrick, that's a sneeasher." Rev. Mr. McColl, of Dundas, then took the platform, and there were few who heard him that did not feel that he was a public speaker.

The very best subject presented itself for discussion, and was a subject which has long been a matter of much interest and concern to the community. The subject was the proposed amendment of the law relating to the property of the poor, and the question was, whether it would be better to have a law which would give the poor a right of property in the land, or whether it would be better to have a law which would give them a right of property in the goods which they produce. The subject was discussed in a most interesting and able manner, and the result was a most successful one. The law was passed, and the poor are now enabled to acquire property in the land, and to improve their condition. The law was a most valuable one, and it was well worth the effort which was made to secure its passage. The law was a most successful one, and it was well worth the effort which was made to secure its passage.
