THE NEW ORLEANS FIGHT.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 2.—Peter Maher, of Ireland, and Robert Fitzsimmons, the New Zealander, met to-night before the Olympic Club in the presence of 6,000 spectators, for a purse of $10,000, of which the loser gets $1,000. Fitzsimmons, the New Zealander, is over 6 feet tall. He weighed 165 pounds, Maher's weight being 178. In the Paris mutuals a majority of the ticketsissued bore the name of Fitzsimmons, locked much stronger and full of vim and stamina. There was one thing that cast a gloom upon the Irish champion—he objected strenuously to fighting on Ash Wednesday, and had used every effort to secure some other day, but without success. Maher was knocked down in the first round, Fitzsimmons drawing first blood and having the best of the contest all the way through.

In the twelfth round the Irishman staggered in response to two heavy blows, went to his corner and gave up the battle.

ST. PAUL. Minn., March 2.— John L.
Sullivan made his initial appearance as an actor here Monday night, and wound up his drunk by failing flat on the stage in the last act. He could scarcely walk or talk throughout the entire performance, and when he forgot his lines would make disconnected speeches to the audience about his ability as a fighter. His concluding speech, previous to falling over a bench, ended with these words: "Harrison wash called away by dispatch from mother. He plazh part bettern any human being can be back to-morrow, night. Mizzer Wallintryin besh to play part, but can't do it. Well, guess I'll say no more."

PAUL WINS THIS TIME.

BAY CITY, March 2.—Paul Fattillo, of Toronto, and C. Hastings, of Winnipeg, two puglists who have been trying for several days to arrange a fight, succeeded on Monday night in cluding the vigilance of the police and came together. Only two rounds were contested, during which Fattillo punished his opponent severely. Whether thine was called for the third round Hastings showed no disposition to toe the scratch and Pattillo was declared the winner. The police got wind of the affair and called the premises after the crowd has gone.

Mr. A. D. Holman has received word that the Galt hockey club will come to the city to meet the London club at the Queen's avenue rink to-night. The Galt club is one of the strongest in the Province, and a spirited match is promised. As the contest is a feature in Mr. Holman's benefit to-night, a large crowd should turn out. The personnel of the teams will be as follows:

STEINITZ STILL CHAMPION.

iiavana, March 2.—The great chess contest is over. The Austro-American has added a new leaf to his laurel wreath and once more has upheld his title as the champion of the world, which he has held for 26 years. The Russian opened the 23rd game of the match by advancing his king's pawn two squares, which he followed up by P—K B 4 as soon as Steinitz made his reply, P—K 4. Steinitz took the offered pawn amid intense excitement. The Russian played for all he was worth. He rapidly developed his pieces and soon Steinitz sgame was hemmed in. On the 28th move Tschigorin's win was a foregone conclusion. Steinitz defended himself in his difficult position as best he could, but on the 30th osition as best he could, but on the 30 position as best he could, but on the 30th move Tschigorin broke down with a tearful blunder, which lost him the game and match on the 32nd move. Thus ended one of the most interesting and important contests in the history of chess. The score at the close stood: Steinitz, 10: Tschigorin, 8; drawn 8. HORSE TALK.

Suicide at Clinton.

CLINTON, March 3.—An agod man named W. H. Cooper, who lived close to this town, put an end to himself yesterday morning by blowing his brains out with a shotgun. He had been despondent for some time, owing to financial troubles, and it is supposed that this was the cause of the rash act. He evidently put the gun in his month and pulled the trigger with his foot. The headless body was found soon after the deed had been done. He was well connected. About a year ago his eldest son was killed by a train, and it was thought then that the son had deliberately walked in front of the train. Much sympathy is expressed for the surviving relatives.

These statements and admissions, made so recordly by the recognized organ of Mr. Carling and his friends, may well be pondered till the members had to be paid extra allowances, or heard of the tremendous cost of the country of dividing the goats from the sheep; nor what a time they had to make the division. They were all in one pen, and so neatone color that you could hardly tell sheep from goat. A few got out of the pen, and see was put out and annexed at once. I would recommend Tories to read up a littleand begin with the Globe of Feb. 10, and they will find that the division of last session has been very incomplete, and will have to be resumed again when Parliament opens. It really looks as if there was very little weet mutton in the whole pen. I apprehend that not many Englishmen will have an attonal, patriotic liking for that kind dicanadian lamb. Party workers in London did violence to the lax rules of political decency when they tried to secure the votes of men, whom even their own revising officer ruled had no right to be on the list. The question at issue is not as to whether these men have a right to vote. The revising officer has already decided that point by striking off more than 200 of their names. Party leaders ignore the unanimous judgment of two courts, and go to the Supreme Court in the hope that it will find faults in the original notice to remove these names that will enable them to secure the benefits of votes that are begus as according to the ruling of a partisan revising officer.
