Lasts a Lifetime.

That is just what they say of Vapo-Cresolene. The vaporizer is practically indestructible, and the Cresolene is certainly not expensive. This way of treating affections of the throat is most economical, and is also most effective. Our utile picture illustrates how it's used. You put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light lamp beneath, and then breathe-in the soothing, healing vapor. For whooping-cough and croup it's a perfect specific. 6 Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 130 Fulsca St., New York, U.S.A.

KILLED BY THE PENETANG TRAIN

Three Persons Instantly Killed at a Crossing-Kerwood Man Loses Both Leas.

THREE KILLED.

Barrie, Ont., Dec. 21.—Thomas Lennox, a farmer, about 60 years of age, residing in Floss township, near Phelpston; his daughter and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jas Lennox, were instantly killed by th Lennox, were instantly killed by the Penetang express between Elmvale and Phelpston, about 7 o'c ock yesterday morning. Just as they drove out from their gate the Penetang train was rapidly approaching the railway crossing, which was not over a few rods away. Mr. Lennox whipped his horses into a gallop in an attempt to cross before the train, but the sleigh was struck and all the occupants and both horses killed. Lennox was a well-to-do farmer. He leaves a widow and a family of six boys and two girls, mostly grown up. Mrs. James Lennox leaves a husband and a family of little children.

The engineers claims to have sounded his whistle before reaching the crossing, and applied the brakes when he saw the sleigh approaching in the dim light, but it was too date to stop the train in time.

THE CUDAHY KIDNAPPERS

Gave Explicit Instructions How to ronto. Get Back the Boy.

Young Edward Tells His Experience— The Abductors' Plan to Secure Other Victims.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 21.-The following is a copy of the second letter sent by the kidnappers to Mr. Cudahy, whose boy was abducted on Tuesday malha, Dec. 18, 1900-Mr. Cudahy,-We have kidnapped your child and demand $25,000 (twenty-five thousand dollars) for his safe return. If you give us the money the child will be returned as safe as when you last saw. him, but if you refuse we will put acid in his eyes and blind him. Get the money all in gold, five, ten and twenty-dollar pieces; put it in a white wheat sack, get in your buggy alone on the night of Dec. 19 at 7 o'clock, and drive south from your house to Center street, turn west on Center and drive back to Ruser's Park and follow the paved road toward Fremont. When you come to a lantern that is lighted by the side of the road, place the money by the lantern immediately turn your horse around and return home. You will know our lantern, for it will have two ribbons, black and white, tied on the handle. You must place a red lantern on your buggy where it can be plainly seen, so we will know you a mile away. This letter and every part of it must be returned with the money, and any attempt at capture will be the saddest thing you ever

CHARLEY ROSS CASE RECALLED. If you remember, some twenty years ago Charley Ross was kidnapped in New York city and $20,000 ransom asked. Old man Ross was willing to give up the money, but Burns, the great detective, with others, persuaded the old man not to give up the money, ascuring him that the thieves would be capture d. Ross died of a broken heart, sorry that he allowed the detective to dictate to him. This letter must not be seen by any one but you. If the police or some stranger knew its contents they might attempt to capture us, although against wish, or some one might use a lantern and represent us, thus the wrong party securing the money, and this would be as fatal to you as if you refused to give up the money. So you see the danger if you let this letter be seen.

Mr. Cudahy, you are up against it, and there is only one way out. Give up the coin. Money we want and money we will get. If you don't give up the next man will, for he will see up the next man will, for he will see that we mean business and you can lead your boy around blind for the rest of your days, and all you will have is the copper sympathy. Do the right thing by us and we will do the same by you. If you refuse you will soon see the saddest sight you ever seen. Wednesday, Dec. 19. This night or never. Follow these instructions and no harm will befall you or yours. and no harm will befall you or yours. THE BOY'S STORY.

When young Edward Cudahy arose yesterday morning he was questioned concerning the circumstances of his disappearance. He said that he was In front of Gen. Cowin's house, just across the street from his own home, on his way home from the Rustin residence, on Tuesday evening, when two men approached him. them stepped up to him and said: "We are sheriffs from Sarpy county, and arrest you as Eddy McGee, who escaped from the reform school." The lad replied that he was not Eddie McGee, but his captors said that he would have to be identified. They placed hint in a buggy and drove to 36th street, and then south to Leavenworth street.

BLINDFOLDED HIM.

they approached Leavenworth street a motor car pa sed them. The lad recognized the conductor and said to his captors: "There is a man who knows me; he can identify me." But the captors immediately blindfolded him and whipped up the horse. The lad was then taken across Leavenworth street and driven in a southwesterly direction. Presently they came to a house, which, in the opinion of the lad, is somewhere in the southwestern part of South Omaha.

CHAINED TO THE FLOOR. Young Cudahy was taken from the buggy and placed in a room and chained to the floor. He remained there all night and the next day. His hands were tied and the chains on his feet prevented him from getting a good view of his surroundings, even after the blindfold had been removed. He knows, however, that he was in an empty room and that the blinds on the windows were closed. On the trip to the place of imprisonment, the men, he says, talked a little about themselves. He gathered from them that there were six in the gang. One of the men came from Mexico recently and was an expert in the kidnapping business. After the mysterious house was reached one man guarded him during a greater portion of the day. The second man was in and out of the room at intervals. PLANNING TO SEICURE MORE VICTIMS. From a conversation between the abductors and himself, the young man learned that the abductors had been seeking to abduct one of the girls of this for months. At night, for some anknown reason, the men released young Cudahy from his chains and said "We are going to take you home." They then led him to a hack. He was driven rapidly through the darkness to 37th and Leavenworth streets, where he was allowed to leave the carriage. From there he walked home, arriving there shortly after one o'clock in the morning. The bandits made no explana tion to him why they gave him his

ONE WOMAN

With two faces; one face bright with health, the other face pinched and drawn by illness. Many a woman can take the portrait of herself made but a few years ago, and holding it by her face in the mirror realize a similar change.

Behind this change in form and feature is always disease, and generally disease which affects the womanly organism. The backache and bearing-down pains put a heavy strain on the nervous system. There is loss of sleep, lack of appetite, and, as a natural result, loss of strength and flesh.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures diseases of the womanly organs. It establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Words cannot tell what I suffered for thirteen years with womb trouble and dragging-down pains through my hips and back," writes Mrs. John Dickson, of Grenfell, Assiniboia Dist., N.W. Ter. "I can't describe the misery it was to be on my feet long at a time. I could not eat nor sleep. Often I wished to die. Then I saw Dr. Pierce's medicines advertised and thought I would try them. Had not taken one bottle till would try them. Had not taken one bottle till I was feeling well. After I had taken five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was like a new woman. Could eat and sleep and do all my own work. I would entreat of any lady suffering from female weakness to give Dr. Pierce's Navorite Prescription a fair trial, for I know the be refit she will receive."
