sistent rumors the young Duke of Marlborough will be appointed shortly governor-general of Canada. The report is exciting a good deal of discussion among the fashionable set, some members of which are considerably worked up over the idea of the young American duchess reigning as mistress of Rideau Hall, at Ottawa, in the place formerly occupied by King Edward's sister. Princess Louise.

Mariborough doubtless would signalize his term of office by a degree of splendor and stateliness hitherto unknown at Ottawa. The idea of ap-pointing Marlborough is said to have originated with King Edward, who has always manifested a fatherly interest in the young duke. The duchess was formerly Consuelo

Vanderbilt, of New York.

THE BANKRUPT DUKE. London, June 29.-The Duke of Manchester made yesterday what he hopes will be his last appearance in the bankruptcy court, as his creditors which offer was approved yesterday at a meeting of the unsecured creditors. Although the accounts showed that the unsecured debts amounted to £30,710, the trustees submitted that this sum could be scaled down to £19,-794, with assets amounting to £5,900. During the course of his final examthe Duke of Manchester reiterated that his failure was due to the loss of several thousands of nds in theatrical speculations, and said he rad not gambled. Miss Portia Knight, an actress, who has brought suit against the Duke of Manchester for breach of promise, had lawyers present at the duke's examination today, but they were not permitted to question the debtor, and consequently they were unable to obtain information of much value to their client.

THE QUEEN'S WINES. The sale of the surplus wine from the royal cellars was concluded yes-terday. The bidding for the last lots was sensational, several lots of pale sherry, from Windsor Castle, bottled fetching as high as 570 shillings ($142 50) per dozen.

UNDERGROUND TRAVEL. The parliamentary committee having the matter in charge was again occupied yesterday with the question of the electrification of the underground railroads, as the companies had been unable to settle their differences as to whether the Yerkes or ferences as to whether the Yerkes or Ganz systems shall be installed. The committee subsequently approved the legislation proposed to enable Charles T. Yerkes to electrify the roads, subject to the decision of an arbitrator and two engineers.

WILHELMINA'S CABINET QUITS. The Hague, June 29.-The cabinet has resigned, in consequence of the recent elections, by which the government supporters lost 13 seats.

HOME-GROWN BEEF. London, June 29.—The secretary to the admiralty, H. O. Arnold-Foster, intimated in the House of Commons today that the admiralty contemplated stipulating that the navy be supplied with home-grown beef wherever proper slaughtering arrangements were possible.

"JACK" ROBERTS COMMITTED. London, June 29 .- The second trial "Jack" Roberts, the pugilist, and others, charged with manslaughter in causing the death of "Bill" Smith (Murray Livingston, of Philadelphia, Pa.), as the result of a boxing contest, April 22, at the National Sporting Club, this city, began yesterday at the Old Bailey court. The jury in the first trial disagreed. The public prosecutor explained that the prosecution was undertaken with the view of stopping future competitions of this kind, rather than with the view of punishing defendants. Among the witnesses called for the defense was the Earl of Lonsdale. He said he had been associated with boxing for 25 years. The Queensbury rules, prevailing at the National Sporting Club, minimized the dangers of boxing contests. At the close of the testimony all the defendants were committed.

THE KING'S CORONATION. London, June 29 .- The royal proclamation announcing that the coronation of King Edward is to take place June next, the exact day not yet having been determined on, was read yesterday at St. James Palace, Teme Bar and the Royal Exchange, with all the quaint medieval scenes which marked the occasion of the proclaiming of the accession of the King. At the appointed hour four state rumpeters, lavishly adorned in gold mbroidered tunics, appeared in front of the balcony. By their side stood he Norroy king of arms (Willie H. Weldon), flanked by two royal macers, searing gold maces, and surrounded by the blue mantle (Gorden Ambrose De Lisle Lee); the rouge dragon (Everard Green); the Somerset herald (Henry Farnham Burke); the York herald (Alfred Scott Scott-Gatty), and the Windsor herald (Wm. Alexander Lindsay), all in their full official regalia, and the earl marshal (the Duke of Norfolk), the lord steward (the Earl of Pembroke), the lord chamberlain (the Earl of Clarenden), and others.

The trumpeters sounded a protracted fanfare and then the Norroy king of arms bared his head and read the proclamation in a clear voice, which must have been audible to the royal party, occupying a stand on grounds of Marlborough House, facing the balcony of the palace. King Ed-ward wore an admiral's uniform. Queen Alexandra and the others of the royal party watched the ceremony with the greatest interest, the King

As the Norroy king of arms concluded with the words "God Save the King," the trumpeters again sounded a fanfare, the King, in the meantime, standing at the salute. A procession was then formed. Led Tried Hard to Save Her Husband From the Death Chair-Two Men Hanged.

Columbus, Ohio, June 29.-Mrs. Edwin Ruthven, wife of the Cleveland Swanwick, Ruby Stephenson, Kette colored murderer who was put to death in the electric chair early yesterday, Harry Wonderly, Nina Watson, Wilmade a last effort early in the evening to save the life of her husband. In the presence of Rev. W. M. Langford and others she made an alleged confession that she, and not her husband killed Policeman Shipp. Mrs. Ruthven declared that on the night of the murder she and Ruthven quarreled; that she left the house, met Charles Jacobs, a mysterious individual of whom Ruthven frequently spoke, and that he asked for Edwin, saying he had a job on hand. She told him her husband was not at home, but that she would help. She donned her husband's clothing and assisted Jacobs in the burglary. Policeman Shipp appeared and Jacobs fled. She used her revolver and Shipp was killed.

Ruthven, when told of the confes-sion, declared it was not true. Mrs. ceiving stolen property.
