THE WESTERN BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND COLLEGE

Coo Building, 110 Dundas Street, London.

Established 25 Years.

FALL TERM COMMENCES 1st SEPTEMBER

Think of it! During the twenty-five years that this school has been established in London, every GRADUATE has been placed in a situation, and ninety-seven per cent of our pupils have graduated. This wonderful record is due to the fact that we give of each pupil. Our course in stenography Individual Instruction includes Isaac Pitman's Short Course, in forty lessons, and also Actual Business Correspondence, Touch Typewriting, Spelling and Punctuation, Business Arithmetic, Penmanship, etc.

Our business course is by far the most practical course in existence. UP-TO-DATE TEACHERS, who are experts in their respective departments are employed. Our graduates are to be found among Parliamentary Reporters, County Court Reporters, and many of them are Secretaries to Ministers of the Crown, both at Ottawa and Toronto and one at Washington. Miss May Brown, writing from Fernie, B. C., says: "I made fifty dollars extra this week, not so bad for one of your old pupils. I put on my thinking cap and tried to remember all the pointers you gave me. They complimented me on my first court work." Write for terms.

GLASS-GRAY

Maple Grove Farm, Lobo, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 19, when the youngest daughter, Eva Irene, of Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Gray, was united in marriage to Mr. Harley Matthew Glass, of Greenville, Mich. The ceremony took place on the lawn under an arch of evergreens, prettily decorated with flags.

The bride was becomingly gowned in cream silk, with trimming of Irish lace, carrying a shower bouquet of cream roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Sadie Davidson, of Detroit, wore a dainty frock of pink batiste, and carried white asters. The ring bearer, little Miss Mary Christina Campbell, cousin of the bride, looked very sweet in an accordeon-pleated chiffon. The flower girl, Miss Muriel Glass, cousin of the groom, looked pretty in a white emproidery, with pale blue trimmings. Mr. John Tuger, of St. Louis, Mich. assisted the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. C. Gray, B. A., Uxbridge, brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. E. J. McEwen, Poplar Hill The wedding march was played by Miss Florence Gillies, of Hamilton, while Mr. Oliver Sinclair, of London, rendered two appropriate solos. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served by friends of the the pers n presenting it, either day or early train for Toronto, Muskoka and other points. The bride's travelling gown was Copenhagen, with a hat to correspond.

2. Things You Don't See in a Sewing Machine

- I Don't judge any sewing machine just by the way it looks.
- I Enamel paint and shiny varnish are good things, but they don't make a machine run well or last long.
- Experience and judgment and intent combined with manufacturing facilities, are the things you should consider before buying.
- These points, combined with a rigid system of inspection and tests, give a lasting value to every Singer Sewing Machine.
- You can't see them, but you learn them in the easy, effective working of every part-and their value becomes more plain to you after years of service.
- Devery Singer is perfect when it leaves the factory-your daughter will say it's still perfect when you have no more use for it.
