IONLY FARMERS CLOSE TO CITY AT MARKET

Heavy Roads Cause Small Market-Live Hogs For Monday.

Today's market was a small-sized one on account of the heavy condition of the country roads. Hay and eats were practically absent from the local square, only lighter loads of produce being brought in, and those chiefly by farmers living adjacent to the city. Dressed hogs were not plentiful, cold snap of yesterday making it difficult to dress the animals. One or two loads sold at $9 per cwt. Mr. D. H. Flannigan announced today that would ship live hogs from the C. P. R. station at $6 15 per cwt.

Butter and eggs were not common and eggs sold at 35 and 40 cents per dozen in retail lots. Wholesale quantities brought 30 cents per dozen. Butter retailed at 30 and 32 cents per cound, and wholesaled at 28 cents. Dressed fowl were not numerous, but 22 cents was asked for turkeys, and corresponding prices for ducks, and chickens. Dressed chickens brought $1 25 per pair without much difficulty. Other market prices were fairly active.

CITY'S PER CAPITA ASSESSMENT LOW

London Has Record Among Four Large Cities of This Province.

SECOND AS TO TAXES

Hamilton Pays Smallest Amount Per Inhabitant-Each Londoner Pays $4.70 for Taxes.

London's assessment per capita is the lowest of any of the four large cities of Ontario-Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton and London City Clerk Baker has recently compiled statistics on this subject, which he will use in the year book. According to the figures, Toronto's assessment per capita is $791.34, Ottawa's $627.84, Hamilton's $579.10, and London's $561.0". This : a very tav orable balance. Hamilton has the lowest rate by taxation per capita. Et h citizen pays or at least is supposed to pay, $8.89 per annum in taxes. London is next with $10.36, Ottawa $11.06, and Torente, the largest, $11.77.

School Vote Higher. The Ambitious City also shares the distinction of having the lowest school tax per capita. It is figured at $3.59 Toronto is next with $4.59, while London is still hi her, $4.70. Ottawa pays the largest school tax. $5.34.

The debenture debt of London com pares favorably with the others. In this Hamilton has a slight advantage the rate per capita being $79.60, while London's is $80.48. Toronto is high with $111.02, and Ottawa next with

FIREMEN'S FUND HAS REACHED $1,200

From Hospital for the Insane.

Fire Chief Aitken has received heck for $150 from Dr Robinson, superintendent of the London Hospital for the Insane, on behalf of the Ontario Government for the services of the firemen at the recent blaze at the asylum. Dr. Robinson, in his communication, thanks the brigade for the excellent work. The money will be applied to the Firemen's Bene fit Fund.

That fund now amounts to $1,200 of which $300 has been added the past two weeks The men will now contribute monthly to the fund, and it is expected that within a four voore a fully pension list for old firemen will be in operation. It is expected that No. 3 committee will arrange the details of this fund at a very early date. There is a rumor that some of the older men will be given a lump sum, of money and asked to retire from the brigade, to make room for younger and more active men. PAIR OF-FOR CHIEF WILLIAMS

YOUR OPPORTUNITY

RE YOU AWARE of the excellent speculative A RE YOU AWARE of the case of the staple chances prevailing at present in the staple stocks of Cobalt and Porcupine?

are once more directing their at tention to this department of the market, and basing our opinion on the strong undertone, we believe a sharp advance is inevitable and absolutely warranted in certain of the Cobalt and Porcu pine stocks.

We are constantly in touch with the underground development work now going on at the practically proven mines of Porcupine, and in a number of these we can show where mine values are far in excess of market valuations. How long this unique condition will last we are unable to tell, but while such excellent chances do exist, herein lies your opportunity to reap big returns within a very short time.

Write us for particulars and we will gladly keep you posted on what is going on at Cobalt and Porcupine, as well as what the "inside" interests are doing in the market.

This is valuable information, and is returning many of our clients big profits.
