ON INSPECTION

School Boys Are Inspected and March Past Despite Rain.

eral inspection and a march-past confusion.

No. 1 Battalion, with Captain R. E. Baiders, M.C., in charge, headed the column. Then came No. 2 Battalion under the command of Captain W. S. Fenton of the Royal Canadian Regiment, while No. 3 Battalion composed entirely of public school cadets with Captain A. C. Campbell in command, brought up the rear. The march-past was played by the brass band of the R. C. R.

The rain which had previously fallen

R. C. R.

The rain which had previously fallen prevented many people from attending, but the few who witnessed the splendid performance were loud with their applause. Everyone, even to the general, was completely surprised by the masterly and snappy way in which the three battalions and especially the younger boys kept in step, straight in line, swung their arms and gave "eyes right."

General Pleased.

Immediately after the last battalion had swung towards camp, General Panet turned to a civilian who was here and said, "Wasn't that well done? It certainly was snappy. And remember, too, that they have been drilled only four days."

that they have been drilled only four days."

Later in the day when he stood before the boys as they were formed up in a three-sided hollow square to receive the prizes he said: "I congratulate you on your present appearance. Your performance was remarkable and a credit to you and your officers. I am proud to have had you in camp here."

Prizes Awarded.

The prizes were presented to the different winners by many different ladies gathered there, who graciously consented to act at the general's request. Before the ceremony was over, however, heavy rain fell, causing the spectators to scatter, but the cadets remained in formation until all the prizes had been awarded. The ceremony was conducted by Lieut.-Col. A. W. McCrimmon, camp commander.

The first award was a shield given by Lieut.-Col. A. W. McCrimmon, camp by Lieut.-Col. A. W. McCrimmon, camp commander.

The first award was a shield given for general efficiency, both for tests for general efficiency, both for tests in the home quarters and those given while in camp. Although Listowel High School was highest in points given for camp work, they did not make enough points in their total tests to win the championship. It was won by the Windsor Collegiate Institute.

You have a shield given by Sir Adam Beck for shooting and marksmanship was also awarded an individual prize. Mrs. Hill presented the prizes. The Learnington High School won second place.

John S. Barnard gave a beautiful bronze trophy to the cadets winning the highest number of points for shooting. It was won by the Learnington High School. Mrs. Robinson made the presentation. She also presented second prizes to the Chesley High School cadets.

HERE'S THE CHAP RESPONSIBLE FOR TORRID WEATHER

The janitor of the Public Utilities Building is a native of the Sahara Desert, in the opinion of city officials, this opinion resulting from the fact that although the thermometer registered in the nineties Friday afternoon, the heat was turned on in the various offices in the building.

When an observant one noted this fact and drew the attention of others to the radiators, they imagined he was attempting a practical joke, but when the heating apparatus was discovered to be almost too hot to touch general surprise was registered.

One official ventured the explanation that the janitor had burned some old papers and refuse in the furnace, thus generating the unnecessary heat, but others jocularly suggested that the fires were kept burning to encourage the sale of electric fans in the Hydro Shop.

of Thursday afternoon, which followed immediately after the other ceremonies.

Gen. Panet inspects.

The Inspection was made by Brig.-Gen. H. A. Panet, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., and his staff. At 4:45 o'clock the three battalions of sun-burned boys were ordered to fall in. The two battalions composed of cadets from the collegiate institutes and the high schools carried rifles, while the public school cadets marched light. After several movements, perfectly executed, they were formed in a line of platoons, and after a salute was given the general conducted the inspection.

March-Past Like Veterans.

The march-past was thrilling for, although the cadets had been in training only four days, they conducted themselves like veterans. The formations and the movements executed under the eagle eyes of sergeant instructors and officors of the Royal Canadian Regiment were accomplished with precision and with absolutely no confusion.

No. 1 Battalion, with Captain R. E. wife and her mother get suspicious, and announce their intention of accompanying him. That, of course, leads to unforeseen complications that continue when the party reaches Mexico. Eillings' escape from the mess by a startling escape from the mess by a starting trick furnishes the climax of the action. In addition to the two feature productions, "A Dark Mirror" and "Too Much Johnson," another rollicking "Snub" Pollard comedy, Allen World News, and special musical program.

> DOUGLAS MACLEAN, IN "THE HOME STRETCH," AT ALLEN'S ON THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATUR-DAY OF NEXT WEEK.

Douglas MacLean's latest comedy, "The Home Stretch," which will be the feature attraction at the Allen Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, stands forth as one of the most orig-inal and entertaining offers of the year. Members of the sporting fraternity who nthuse at the sight of a thoroughbred racehorse, and who in a period now al-most gone, have thrilled at the hairraising finish of a great metropolitan handicap, will revel in the many specnandicap, will revel in the many spec-tacular racing scenes which feature "The Home Stretch." The story con-cerns a jockey, a trainer, a racetrack follower, who at the time the picture opens has risen to the ranks of race horse owners, and of the difficulties he encounters when he attempts to abandon his gambling habits. As Johnny Hardwick, the juvenile turfman, Doug las MacLean is said to give a perform ance which surpasses "Sergeant Grey' in "Twenty-three and a Half Hours Leave."

Thursday next, motion picture lovers will have the opportunity to see this mystery drama. All those tense situations which made the original stage play such a strong lure by their powerful bid for the unexpected have been preserved in the silver sheet version and the language of pictures has even proved more effective in bringing out that atmosphere o the unusual which runs all through the drama. This famous mystery story has as its triple authors, Larry Evans, George S. Kaufman and Walter Percival. It is the story of a society crook, pol in all the ways that appeal in high life. He works his way into the confidence Thoughtful Citizens Treat th Youngsters To Drive To Springbank.

While all the town sweltered during the past few days and the fortunationes were enabled to seek temporary refief in the parks, the playgrounds of the sequestered nooks along the lakeside or at other of the amusement places, it rested upon some 35 members of the London Motor Club to remember that in four orphanages scattered through the city were scores of youngsters who would welcome even a breit respite down the river.

Accordingly Friday afternoon these thoughtful residents piloted their cars to the different institutions and gathering a family that totalled 241, drove about the city, through Victoria Park and then down the river road to the city's natural breathing space, Springbank, Happilly, most of the party reached the grounds before the rain commenced. Everyone was safely housed in the pavilion where plenty of ice cream, candy and other good things to eat were distributed. To mention that the "kids" thoroughly enjoyed their couring barely seem adequate. Horns were also donated and whistles, a present from the McClary Manufacturing Company to liven the homeward journey.
