Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such upbuilding treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

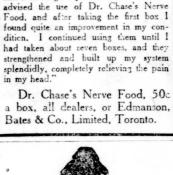

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearse, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I

Tenants in Gotham Draw Blanks in Moving Shuffle

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—All packed up and no place to go—that was the plight yesterday of hundreds of New York families who attempted to participate with some 100,000 of their fellows in the annual game of swapping apartments.

Many of them gave up their old homes and got as far as the front doors of apartments they expected to occupy before they found the prior occupants refused to get out. Others learned of their misfortune in time to avoid having their belongings piled on the sidewalk

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—All packed up and no place to go—that was the policy of the citics of the passing woe on to those who had counted on succeeding them.

But this was only one feature of an October 1 described by seasoned movers as the most chaotic in the history of the city. Other features, according to city officials, were:

There, were 69,797 families for whom there weren't any homes at all.

Even if—there had been homes for all, there were but 2,500 moving vans available for the joint use of more than 100,000 would-be movers.
