Mr. Blake spoke for over an hour, dealing with provincial rights, the tariff, etc. He said nothing new, and did not touch on the independence question. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. SANDWICH, Ont., June 17 .- Early this morning people from Detroit, Windsor, and the surrounding country came to hear of or witness the execution of Luke Phipps, the murderer. Only about two hundred tickets were issued, and the masses had to content themselves by remaining outside or looking from the top of buildings. The

The thrush, finding himself the sole sur-vivor of the fight, helped himself to the re-past discovered by poor robin, and looked unconcernedly as his stunned and prostrate foe gathered himself together and flew away. While the thrush was in the road, not a sparrow interfered with him, al-though there were ten or twenty of them in the vicinity, watching his movements.

Whisky and Infidelity.

New LONDON, Conn., June 17.-John P. Kennedy last night found his wife in the company of a soldier. When they returned company of a soldier. When they returned home he accused her of being unfaithful. She acknowledged the charge, and ex-pressed a determination to continue in her evil way. She started to leave the house, when Kennedy struck her down with an axe, orushing the skull and killing her. Kennedy was arrested. He said he would have killed himself had he had a revolver. He has been dissipated. street, No. 35, but is in error when he calls it a cigar store, the store has all the appear-ance of a confectionary store, but is known by reputation as one of the worst places in the city. At night it is a resort of street walkers and the lowest class of humanity, it has been a surprise to some people how such a place could be allowed to exist so long. I hope now that attention has been drawn to the place that it may be soon suppressed. A SUFFERER, Toronto, June 16, 1884.

RED HOT WEATHER.

[The World some time ago called atten-tion to the police to the place in question, but they took no notice of it. Now that the residents of the neighborhood are writ-ing to the press about it it is time the police took action.—ED. WORLD.] The World ran across Moses Oates last night. On being asked about the weather in the near future, the sage said: "Up to June 25 next, generally speaking, the weather will be very hot, some of the days being extremely so, approaching 90° in the shade and 150° in the sun. This has reference to the city. Throughout the province it will be much hotter. average June temperature this year will be higher than for the same month of the past two years.
