SATURDAY AT THE ASSIZES. Cases Settled by Con surance Company Pays Up.

The first case taken up at the Civil Assi before Mr. Justice Street on Saturday was Bell v the London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Company. The action was brought by the plaintiff, B. E. Bell. for $3000 on an insurance policy. The defendants claimed that the plaintiff has secured subsequent insurance without notifying the company. A settlement was arrived at by the company agreeing to pay the plaintiff $2800. on was brought by Delaplante

An action was brought by Delaplante & Bowden, lumber merchants carrying on business in the city, against Kennedy & Co., planing mill proprietors, also of Toronto. The plaintiffs claimed the balance of the price of a car of lumber, $287. It was alleged by the defence that the lumber was not as represented and had therefore been returned. The case was settled by consent and dismissed without costs; the plaintiffs to retain the lumber. number.

Judgment was entered for the amount claimed namely, $493, with costs, in the Central Bank v. Dennis, an action on three

Person of the Pease Furnace Company
Beard was referred to Judge Morgan as pecial examiner, touching the question of special examiner, touching the question of costs.

Nelles v. Fraser and Brooks v. Poucher were struck off the list; Draper v. Nesbitt was settled out of court and Blackley v. Sanderson was adjourned to the next assizes. A settlement having been reached in Quigley v. Toronto the case was struck off by consent. The case of the City v. Boddy was adjourned to the next court, the plaintiffs being unable to proceed.
