A Chat With Our Readers.

As already stated in our columns several times, Mrs. Brooks, the popular and obliging proprietress of Bridgetown's well known book and stationery store, has the MONITOR on sale, sufficient copies to supply the demand (which is continually increasing) being delivered at her store every Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. We expect Mrs. Brooks to be favored with all MONITOR sales and we take this opportunity to kindly ask our patrons to make their purchases there instead of calling at this office for single copies. We are pleased, however, to supply dealers anywhere outside the town at wholesale rates and are pleased to report good sales, especially in Digby and Bear River where copies can be obtained at Hankinson's News Stand and at the Bear River Drug Store.

At the same time we wish to suggest to all our readers that it will prove more convenient to become regular subscribers instead of depending on weekly purchases.

We also wish to remind our regular subscribers, who are in arrears, that a payment at the present time would be greatly appreciated.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S RECEPTION

The Methodist's New Pastor Officially Welcomed to Bridgetown.

A large number of the members of the Methodist circuit and others assembled in the Methodist vestry Friday evening to tender an official welcome to Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam, the new pastor of Providence Methodist church, of this town, and the churches in the local circuit.

Mr. H. B. Hicks occupied the chair and presided in his usual genial manner, introducing the various speakers. Rev. Mr. Munroe, of Annapolis, and Rev. Mr. Boyce, of Lawrenceville, represented the Annapolis District, in the absence of the chairman, Rev. W. I. Croft, of Digby, who was unable to be present. Rev. Dr. Jost, a former pastor, welcomed him to the circuit. Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church, represented the local clergy and Dr. M. E. Armstrong, the laymen. Rev. Mr. Swetnam made a very appropriate reply, expressing himself as pleased with the town and the people. We feel sure that Mr. Swetnam will have a successful term as pastor of this circuit and we wish him every success.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE

The Patriotic People of Bridgetown District Subscribed $3,100.

The people of the Bridgetown district have responded in a loyal manner to the Red Cross Drive. The amount subscribed will reach $3,100. There were three teams of collectors as follows:

C. B. Longmire and P. R. Beckwith; Karl Freeman and J. S. Moses; F. E. Bath and A. C. Charlton. The collectors were certainly on their job and much credit must be given them for the amount collected. We expect to publish a complete list of the subscribers in a future issue together with a letter from Mr. H. B. Hicks, the county chairman of the fund.

Soldiers of the Soil

The MONITOR had a pleasant call Friday afternoon from Mr. Charles L. Wood, of Windsor, the popular supervisor of the Soldiers of the Soil for Western Nova Scotia. He informed us that there are about eighty enrolled in the Bridgetown section, all of whom must be giving excellent satisfaction as he has received no complaints. Dr. M. E. Armstrong is the local director, his assistants being the Rev. E. Underwood and Principal R. E. Tharber. The Canada Food Board has arranged to present the young workers of the soil with metallic badges at the School Exhibition to be held in Lawrenceville, in September.

Local Happenings

The Centrelea Red Cross meeting will be held next Thursday at Mrs. Milledge Rice's.

There will be a pie sale in the Hampton Hall Friday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Several auto parties drove to Margaretsville on the 12th, where a very pleasant day was enjoyed.

The Hampton Red Cross shipped to Halifax July 11th, 25 pyjama suits and 4 dozen cheese cloth handkerchiefs.

Two auto parties from Bridgetown enjoyed a clam bake at Clementsport Thursday, returning the same evening.

Yarmouth County's Exhibition this year will be October 2, 3 and 4. The prize list is out, $3,500. The secretary is Wm. Corning, Yarmouth.

Mr. A. J. Burns, one of Bridgetown's most enterprising grocers, had new potatoes for sale yesterday, the first in the local market this year.

John Edward Stokke, fifteen years old, has been sentenced to be hung on September 27th, in Winnipeg, for complicity in the murder of Constable Bernhard W. Snowdon.

Sentence of $100 fine or thirty days imprisonment was meted out to R. C. Nolan, a farmer from Quinton, Sask., on a charge of refusing to register two weeks ago. He chose the jail sentence.

Mr. Elias Messenger has sold his property on the South Side of the river to Mr. Alfred Phalen. Mr. Messenger has also purchased the Dodge property on the Jeffrey Road.

There are two things which should be stopped in Bridgetown at once: Bicycle riding on the sidewalks and playing ball on the streets. If these are continued, serious accidents are bound to occur, especially to some of our aged residents.

Prof. G. E. Sanders writes us that the demonstration next Thursday afternoon, July 18, at three, in the orchard of Senator Ross will be worth attending. Messrs. Sanders, Brittain, and Vroom are to be present and everyone is invited, especially "spraying cranks."

The open air entertainment given by the Centrelea Red Cross Society last Thursday evening was a great success. The sum of ninety dollars and fifty eight cents was realized, all of which was handed over on Saturday to Mayor McKenzie, of Bridgetown, for the Red Cross Campaign Fund.

We wish again to call special attention to the class of pictures which are being advertised in the MONITOR and which are attracting large audiences to the Primrose Theatre. Messrs. Bishop & Bishop are determined to give their patrons excellent satisfaction and we wish them continued success.

Death of Fletcher Wheelock.

Fletcher Wheelock, a highly respected farmer, died at the home of his son, Arthur J. Wheelock, in Clarence Friday night, aged 87 years and nine months. He was born at Torbrook and after a very successful life in his native village, where he had a large circle of friends, he and Mrs. Wheelock moved to Clarence twelve years ago, where they have since resided with their only son. Besides his wife and his son he is survived by six grandchildren.

The funeral took place Sunday, the service at the house being conducted by Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church, the deacons performing the duties of pall bearers.

The remains were conveyed to Rectaux by Undertaker W. E. Reed, where a service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Mr. McDougall, pastor of the St. Nicholas Baptist Church, of which the deceased became a member in his youth, being baptized by the late Rev. J. E. Beals. Notwithstanding the heavy downpour of rain a large crowd of people from Torbrook, Rectaux and the surrounding villages gathered to pay the last respects to one who was loved by all.

The deceased is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Charles Marshall, of Clarence West, and one brother, Major C. Wheelock, of Rectaux, N. S.

The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Berwick Camp Meeting.

The Camp meeting at Berwick, N. S., will open this year on August 7th at 7.30 p.m. and continue for a week, closing on the evening of the 15th. The Evangelist will be Rev. Leopold A. Nies, Pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Worcester, Mass., a man of personal magnetism and exceptional power. The Rev. Prof. John Alfred Faulkner, D. D., of Drew University, U. S. A., will give a series of lectures on "Christian Doctrine of Modern Man." Everything is being done to make the meetings a successful and fruitful in results. The Association has issued a booklet giving full information about the meetings and accommodations and reduced travelling fares. Any person can have this booklet free by dropping a card to Rev. A. Hockin, Berwick, N. S., Secretary of the Association.

Bridgetown District Sunday School
We have been requested to publish the officers of the Bridgetown District Sunday School, which are as follows: President—H. B. Hicks. Secty.—Treas.—A. B. Clarke. Elementary Department—Mrs. A. Duncan. Secondary—Mrs. Malcom Davis. Adult and Home Departments: Mrs. J. W. Peters.

A Steady Subscriber

Mrs. F. W. Bean, of Lynn, writes the MONITOR as follows: "Enclosed please find P. O. Order for the 24th consecutive year's subscription to your valued paper."

After the Rush day how do your letters look? If not up to your standard why not enquire further into the Flying Start and Keep Going Remington. The Machine that Type-writes for its life work.

A. MILNE FRASER, Halifax, N. S.

Earlier Doctors of New Glasgow.

The New Glasgow Enterprise of July 13th, devotes a couple of columns in reference to the earlier doctors of that town and refers to the late Dr. J. Edgar Jones as follows: He was a native of Digby County, N. S. Was a pupil with Hon. Dr. Parker, Halifax, one of the most skillful medical practitioners of his day in Nova Scotia. Graduated at Harvard College, 1858. Came to New Glasgow in 1862, and remained here three years. Removed to Stellarton in 1865; and on the opening of the Drummond Colliery at Westville, in 1868, was appointed surgeon there, and removed to that place, remaining there until 1880.

He was married in 1863 to Mary Jane, daughter of John Cambron, merchant, New Glasgow. Mrs. Jones died in 1879.

Dr. Jones returned to Digby, his native place, in 1880. He died in 1916.
