May 6, beat H. Tuomas of Thames by Higgins for the championship. At the tree at Thames International Regatta, for the champion sculls he beat Blackman in his trial heat, and Higgins in the final, the latter having been much hirdered by slipping the button of his right-hand scull when half a length ahead. Elliott was also stroke of the crew which won the four-pared race.

SPLASHES

LEFT.—Wallace Ross left Toronto for St. John, N. B., or Monday last. If the Toronto hegatta goes on he will probably join hands with Kennedy and row in the double scull race. Wallace has left a good impres-sion behind him, and his friends in Ontario will aways be pleased to hear of his success in his home by the sea.

Postronen.-The regatta at Chautanqua Lake, N.Y., was postponed from last week until to morrow, on account of Morris and Frenchy Johnson being unable to reach YACHTING ON THE CARS .- For a good practical vacutsman commend us to Monsieur willy, the Anglo-French book-maker. He hired a yacht and bought a nice blue serge out win gill buttons. The yacht sailed from port to port in the north of France, but not with Mousieur Levilly in it. He took the train.

GAUDAUR- SANDFORD .-- The three-mile single-scuil race between Saudford, of Barrie, and caudam, of Orillia, for $300, is to take piace on Lake Couchioling, on October 7th. Sandford is suffering from some injuries recaved by his boat collaing with a tug.

NEW YORK.-From the New York Sunday World we chip the following regarding the speculative feeling in New York on the boat race "I'r the Haulan Courtney best-race there is much inquiry both in New York and in the country. Offers were freely male yesterday to back Haulan at even figures from $1.000 to $5,000. The admirers of Court v. although very sanguine, are holding off, saying that before the race they expect to get at least two and perhaps three to one for their money.

Toronto REGATTA .- So for there is nothing new respecting the proposed regatta at Toronto. The provincial Exhibition and the Haulan Courtney race occupying all the attention this week. In the words of the colored sergeaut, "as you am; stay dar," is just new the position of the regatta.

FARE.-The Grand Trunk Railway will issue return tickets from Toronto to Moutreaten the occasion of the Haulan-Courtney
