

Mr. Savignac has been compelled, by an accidental injury to his shoulder-blade, to confine himself to the building and suspend work for a few weeks.

Students who wish to borrow handsome walking-sticks can do so from Messrs. Dolson, Gordon, or McGregor since the tug-of-war. We congratulate these gentlemen on their success.

Mr. Cossum, Secretary of the Students' Volunteer Movement, took dinner with us recently, and favored us with a profitable missionary address.

VOICES FROM THE HALLS.

What's the matter with "Boots"?

Have you had your height measured?

Well, Mac., what are you taking this year?

Mac. -- Taking it easy.

Not the editor-in-chief, but the editor in mischief.

W. M. MACKERACHER.

REPORTERS' FOLIO.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

THE first meeting of this Society was held on Friday evening, Oct. 16th. After preliminary exercises, reports were heard from Messrs St. Aubin and Charles, who had been laboring under the auspices of the Society during the summer.

Mr. St. Aubin, in presenting the report of his summer's work, gave an interesting account of his endeavor to collect funds for the erection of a French Mission School in Montreal. In the course of his remarks, he spoke of the many encouragements that he had received in Ontario, where a lively