

from 29 10s. to 29 15s. per standard. Of course, the price is dependent greatly upon the quality of the lumber and the quality of manufacture, and varies accordingly. The above figures apply to lumber of good manufacture and quality. Freight rates are being freely quoted at from 52 1/2s to 57 1/2s to Melbourne wharf. Nearly all shipments are made by sailers. Insurance rates range from 2 1/2 per cent. to 3 1/2 per cent., depending largely upon the condition of the ship. Compared to last year the shipments to Australia from the Atlantic Coast have been larger than for years past, owing chiefly to the depression that governs the home markets. Of late there has been no important change in price. Compared with 1903 the conditions are slightly more favorable this year to the sailor. It is felt in lumber circles here that the market will be firmer in the near future. The demand for the right article is very brisk and trade seems to be unaffected by the dulness of the British market.

The planing mill of Fraser, Hamilton & Cox, Ottawa, Ont., was damaged by fire recently to the extent of $3,000.
