

7. A. EURYNOME, Edw.

First taken about Calgary, N. W. T., and afterwards in all the valleys here and there through the Rocky Mountains. It has many varietal forms. The silver spots on under side of secondaries are nearly covered over with yellow and green scales in some specimens, whilst in others they are silver to the very edges of the spots. This species was abundant in the vicinity of the Crow Nest Pass in all its forms, including Erinna and Arge. Some of the specimens also varied much in size, the smallest being about the same measurement across the primaries as Arg. Myrina. This was particularly noticeable in the males, the females being for the most part of an uniform size.

8. Var. ERINNA.9. Var. ARGE, Strk.

No notes were particularly taken in connection with either of these forms.

10. ARG. CLIO, Edw.

In capturing this insect in 1883, I thought that I was the happy possessor of A. Bischoffii or A. Opis, and wrote to Mr. W. H. Edwards to that effect. It turned out otherwise, however. A. Clio was first seen by me and taken in small numbers in 1883, but in 1884 occurred more commonly in several distinct localities.

11. ARG. ARTONIS, Edw.

This is uncommonly like Clio, in my opinion, and I have not been able to distinguish one from the other up to the present time.

12. A. MONTICOLA, Behr.

I took but very few of this species in the Crow Nest Pass, and they varied much from other specimens I have seen, notably from California. In the Kicking Horse Pass and other localities in the Rocky Mountains, however; larger varieties were captured resembling very closely specimens from the southern slope of the Pacific coast. The silver spots usually found in the Argynnidæ on the under side of the posterior wings were entirely of a yellow color, and no appearance of silver was visible in the smaller specimens, whilst in the larger varieties more than two-thirds of the spots was covered with silvery scales.

13. A. EDWARDSII, Reak.14. A. NEVADENSIS, Edw.

A. Edwardsii is a lively insect to follow with a net, and a man must
