

FIG. 8.—No. 14, rabbit. Operated upon November 26, right pneumonectomy; not aspirated. Killed January 7. Trachea filled with Onion's alloy.* Skiagram shows rib defect at 5th right. Truncate right bronchi. Organised exudate in lower right thorax. Deflection of left bronchial tree to same side. Heart shadow in normal position.

*Onion's alloy: Bismuth, 5 parts; lead, 3 parts; tin, 2 parts. melted and cooled to 212°F. and 1 part mercury added. This amalgam melts at 170°F. and sets between 140° and 150°F.