

Lately, seven cents in copper, were found in the alms box, which seems to show, first, that the poor help the poor, and secondly that others imagine that the alms box is intended for the use of the poor only; whereas it is intended to be used by anyone who hears the cry of this bitter weather "Consider the poor and needy." Whatever finds its way into the alms box is presently converted into warmth for little children.

The Secretary of "The St. George's Mens' Club," has handed in the following report:—

The Club opened on October 26th, 1899. At the second meeting the officers elected were:— Mr. Langton, President; Mr. Rounthwaite, Vice-President; Mr. Harry Smith, Secretary; Mr. Stanley Mann, Treasurer.

At a subsequent meeting, Mr. Mann resigned, and Mr. Bilkey was elected in his place. During November and December, the evenings were given up to games, debates, songs, boxing-bouts, etc., but at the suggestion of Mr. Blanchford an improvement was made; it was that each week a "talk" should be given on some subject in which the chosen speaker was particularly interested. This has proved an entertaining and instructive experiment.

JANUARY 4TH.

"The Militia of Canada." Mr. Harry Smith.

JANUARY 11TH.

"Tea, its History and Use." Mr. Blanchford.

This "talk" was especially interesting on account of the practical illustrations given with a number of samples of tea.

JANUARY 18TH.

"Swimming." Mr. Percy Webb.

"Life-saving." Mr. Lewis Smith.

JANUARY 25TH.

"Banking in Canada." Mr. Rounthwaite.

Mr. Biggar has kindly promised to give the next "talk," February 1st. His subject will be "Rome, the Eternal City." The Club invites the men of the congregation to this meeting. A rink for the use of the Club is being put into shape and a good library is also "on the way."

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

Many members of our Branch attended the service held in St. James', on January 11th, when the Nineteenth Century Fund was presented. The total amount received was $1,380 and there are still some Branches to hear from. Our Branch gave $35 and St. Agatha's Guild $5, and the sum was considered satisfactory because, though not large, it represented a very general response from the members. The gifts of several absent members were specially appreciated. The collecting was chiefly done by several of the younger members whose help was cheerfully given and gratefully acknowledged by the officers of the Branch. Three weeks' holiday was taken and the Branch reassembled on January 12th. The attendance has rather fallen off of late from various causes. A most welcome gift of material has been received from a member, and the two Christmas bales were gratefully acknowledged by Mrs. Bourne, Essonville, and Mr. Hazelhurst, Baysville.
