

Woman's Face.

"What furniture can give such finish to a room, as a tender woman's face?" asks George Elliot. Not any, we are happy to answer, provided the glow of health tempers the tender expression. The pale, anxious, bloodless face of the consumptive, or the evident sufferings of the dyspeptic, induce feelings of sorrow and grief on our part, and compell us to tell them of Dr. Piero's "Golden Medical Discovery," the sovereign remedy for consumption and other diseases of the respiratory system as well as dyspepsia and other digestive troubles. Hold every where.

"Are you sure you are converted?" asked Mr. Spurgeon of a devout house maid. "Dread, sir, I think I am, for I a sweeps under the beds and in dark corners."

Best Goods are put in Smallest Parcels.

The old proverb is certainly true in the case of Dr. Piero's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," which are little, sugar-wrapped parcels, scarcely larger than mustard seeds, containing as much cathartic power as is done up in the biggest, most repulsive-looking pill. Unlike the big pills, however, they are mild and pleasant in their operation—do not produce griping pains, nor render the bowels constive after using.

Bessie uses eighteen volumes of an encyclopedia in preparing her essay for commencement day, while Alice uses but ten. How many more bouquets will Bessie receive than Alice?

China has hundreds of thousands of professional beggars, but not one Chinese beggar, it is asserted, has yet been found in the United States, even on the Pacific coast.

Quack Advertisements

Are rapidly becoming a nuisance, and we think it behoves publishers to examine into the merits of many articles passed up in their columns. We do not deny that many meritorious remedies are properly to be classed under this heading. Take the hundreds and thousands relieved from severe suffering by the use of Polson's NERVILINE, would it not be unreasonable to expect them to condemn that far-famed remedy. Now we know for a fact that Polson's Nerviline is without exception the most powerful, pleasant and certain remedy in the world for pain. It cannot fail, for it goes right to the bone of pain, penetrates to the nerves, soothes them into quietness, and affords prompt and permanent relief. Nerviline is sold by all druggists. Sample only 10 cents. Try it.
