

THE GALLERY OF CANADIAN HEROES.—No. IV.—GREAT PRIAM.

There sat the seniors of the Trojan race :
 (Old Priam's chiefs, and most in Priam's grace),
 The king the first; Thymotes at his side;
 Lampus and Clytus, long in council tried;
 Panthus, and Hicetson, once the strong;

And next, the wisest of the reverend throng,
 Antenor grave, and sage Ucalegon,
 Lean'd on the walls and bask'd before the sun :
 Chiefs, who no more in bloody fights engage,
 But wise through time, and narrative with age,
 Pore, Iliad III, 91-100
