

of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving our own souls.

Let us begin, then, with the exhortation of the Apostle Paul in the 6th chapter of 2nd Corinthians, "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

Now, are you sincerely desirous of an opportunity of obeying this command? and, if so, let the Christian lay his hand upon his heart, and, as in the presence of God, ask himself this question, What is eminently and especially the unclean thing of the present day? Can he call to mind any thing in the present day (if he honestly tries to do so) which more than all others especially deserves this name? The particular occasion which may call for this command of the Apostle, to come out and be separate, and not to touch the unclean thing, must be different in every different age of the world; but the spirit of the command itself is always the same.

As times and circumstances vary, that which more especially constitutes the unclean thing of one age, may be different from that which constitutes the unclean thing of another. But the duty of abhorring and protesting against the unclean thing in every age, whatever it may be, is eternally the same! Now what does conscience suggest as eminently the unclean thing of the present day? Surely, when it is considered that INTemperance is the foul blot of England, the foulest stain in our national escutcheon, more particularly of Protestant Europe; how it is the parent of crime; how it hardens the heart, scars the conscience, blights the affections, and stirs up the secret lusts of the soul; it may emphatically be called the "unclean thing." There is no other unclean thing in the present day at all to be mentioned with it.

Also the expression, "come out from among them and be ye separate," means something more than a mere negative position. To every honest mind it conveys the idea of doing something positive, of coming out and departing from the tents of these wicked men, and protesting against their soul-murdering customs. Now, the question is, are you willing to obey this command, or are you not? And above all, are you willing to assist others in obeying it?

What is the length and breadth of your sterling Christianity? You are called upon to make a stand on the side of Christian temperance, and to take up a ground on which your poorer Christian brethren, down to the very lowest orders of society, can stand safely and securely, and, by your protest, to make all slippery and doubtful ground, all dangerous customs and courtesies, shameful and disgraceful. It is your duty to pull, drag, persuade, your brother off this ground, by every possible motive that you can bring to bear upon him.

It is not the question, whether it be unclean and dangerous to you; you must protest against that which you know to be pregnant with danger to him. Now, here is an opportunity of obedience: will you come out and be separate, and let it be seen who is on the Lord's side, or will you not?

Again, the Apostle says,—"The grace of God, that bringeth salvation, hath appeared unto all men; teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world, looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

is it supposed would be noticed in Parliament when they came together again. Egypt.—The Pasha Mehemet Ali, who acted such a prominent part in European politics a few years since, has abdicated in favour of his son Ibrahim. Various causes are assigned for this step. DEATH OF JOSEPH BONAPARTE.—This individual, at one time King of Spain, died at Florence on the 28th July, after a long illness. The Pope is also stated to be dangerously ill. The Romagna remains in an unsettled condition.

REPORTED NEW MINISTRY.—For some time reports have been prevalent of the formation of a cabinet, but nothing positive has yet been ascertained upon the subject. The latest rumour is that a ministry had actually been formed, composed of the following gentlemen:— Hon. D. B. Viger, President of the Council. Hon. W. Morris, Receiver General. W. H. Merritt, Esq., Inspector General. D. B. Papineau, Esq., Com. of C. Lands. James Smith, Esq., Attorney Genl., East. Jean Chabot, Esq., Solicitor Genl., do. Hon. W. H. Draper, Attorney Genl., West. Hon. H. Sherwood, Solicitor Genl., do. Hon. D. Daly, Provincial Secretary.

The following paragraph extracted from the reply of His Excellency the Governor General, to an address recently presented to him by the inhabitants of the county of Drummond, encourages the hope of a speedy arrangement of matters, so that His Excellency may be relieved of some part of the heavy burden which has so long been borne by him without any assistance except that of subordinates in the various public departments:—"It has been my unceasing endeavour since the resignation of the late Executive Council, to form such an administration as would gain the confidence of the People and the Parliament. Obstacles beyond my control have hitherto impeded its completion; but I trust that they are at length surmounted, and that the arrangements about to be announced, will deserve and obtain the approval of the country."

P. S.—An Extra of the Official Gazette, dated the 3d inst., was yesterday received, confirming the above statement, as regards Messrs. Draper, Smith, Papineau and Morris.

THE ARMY.—Captain W. Fraser's company of the Royal Artillery left this garrison yesterday afternoon for Montreal: the band of the 60th Rifles escorted them to the Stearnboat. They have been replaced by Captain Dacre's company which arrived in the Apollo.

ARRIVAL OF THE UNICORN. This vessel, with her accustomed regularity, has furnished us with English dates to the 20th ult. We are happy to announce the accompaniment of Her Majesty, which auspicious event took place on the 6th August, when Her Majesty was safely delivered of a Prince, who is to have the title of the Duke of York. The Queen and her infant were joining well. The Privy Council directed a public thanksgiving in consequence. COMMERCIAL MATTERS generally were in a very satisfactory state. The manufacturers were fully employed. Harvest operations had been slightly interrupted by rain, but a few days of fine weather would suffice for securing the crops. The Corn Market continued firm at our quotations. POST OFFICE ESPIONAGE.—The reports of the Committees of both Houses of Parliament have been made. On an average of 21 years, the warrants for opening letters in Great Britain have been about eight annually, of which about six have been upon the representation of Magistrates, to bring criminals to justice, and two for political considerations. The Committee state "that upon looking back through the proceedings of several administrations, they find the practice to have been nearly uniform, the power to have been sparingly exercised, and never from party or personal motives, but always from a desire either to promote the ends of justice or the best interests of the country." The report having been presented upon the adjournment of Parliament, no action had taken place in reference to it. Parliament had adjourned to the 5th September, to enable the House of Lords to give judgment in the case of O'Connell. The King of Saxony left England on the 4th ultimo, to return to his own dominions. It is said to be the intention of Her Majesty the Queen to visit Ireland early in the ensuing summer. Prince William of Prussia had arrived in England on a visit to Her Majesty. IRELAND continues perfectly quiet. The meetings of the Repeal Association are still held, but the oratory is of a very harmless kind, and the "rent" decreasing. FRANCE.—Hostilities between this country and Morocco have, unfortunately, been commenced. The city of Tangiers was bombarded on the 6th ult. by the French squadron under command of the Prince de Joinville, and at the very time when the Governor of Gibraltar supposed that warlike proceedings would be avoided. The French account states that in one hour the batteries of the place were dismantled and the fire silenced, with severe loss to the Moors, who fire they themselves sustained but trifling damage, although the resistance was gallant and vigorous. The news had created a great sensation in England, and
