RESTLESSNESS.—Dr. Wells has found the following prescription of great use in quieting the restlessness so often seen in infants affected with subacute or chronic gastro-intestinal catarrh:

- R Sulphonal gr. ss.
 Sodium bromid gr. ii.
 Spirit of peppermint . . gtt. x.
 Camphor-water f3 j.—M.

The dose should be repeated every two or three hours, according to indications. Occasionally, when the attack of restlessness is preceded by sour vomiting and pain, 5 or 10 grains of sodium bicarbonate added to the above prescription will increase its usefulness.—Philadelphia Polyclinic.
