TORONTO, ONT., March 11, 1880.

Messrs. John McCabe & Co., Managers Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., 17 Toronto Street, Toronto, Ont.:-

Gentlemen,—I beg to acknowledge the receipt, through your hands, from the Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., of $980 80, in full payment of policy 44,236 on life of my late husband, B. Noel Fisher, who was a passenger on the steamer "Waubuno," wrecked in the Georgian Bay in the severe gale of November last. The annual premium due in March, 1879, through inadvertence, had not been paid, and I therefore highly appreciate the great benefits resulting from the Maine non-forfeiture law, which I understand is a feature special to the Union Mutual Life, and under which the policy, notwithstanding the failure of payment, was continued in force for the full amount less the said premium, and I desire to express my thanks for the prompt and satisfactory manner in which the claim was paid, payment having been made within one week after the claim papers were completed and sent to the Company.

The Company is at liberty to publish this acknowledgment, that others may see the benefits secured by a policy issued under the provisions of the Maine non-forfeiture law by the Company you represent.

(Signed)

Yours respectfully,
 EMMA FISHER

Administratrix & Beneficiary.

This Company is the only one that issues in Canada a definite policy contract, having printed thereon the exact time in years and days for which the insurance will be continued in force, after the non-payment of any premium due after the third year from the date of issue, thus bridging over the forfeiture of the policy, which, in all other Companies here, follows the non-payment of a premium, resulting from failure in business or any unforeseen cause.
