CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

COLLECTIONS in aid of the St. Boniface and Winnipeg hospitals were taken up in the Catholic churches of the city on Sunday.

LAST Sunday, being the first in the month, Stations of the Cross took the place of the usual vespers at St. Mary's church. There was a very large congregation. During Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament the special music consisted of "O Salutaris" by Miss Maggie Barrett, "Pro Peccatis" by Mr. Criss, and "Sanctum Ergo" by the full choir.

THE Rev. Father LaRue, S. J., officiated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday. At High Mass he preached an eloquent sermon based on the regulations of the Church regarding Easter confession and communion. At the offertory Mr. Tomney sang a magnificent solo, "Pro Peccatis."

BRANCH No. 52 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association holds a regular meeting to-night. One new member is to be initiated, and other important business to transact, consisting of completing arrangements for the part the Branch intends to take in union with all other Catholic bodies in connection with the consecration of Archbishop Langevin.

THE officers of the local Branch, No. 38, of the C. M. B. A. Relief association have received copies of the Act of Incorporation, and proof sheets of the new constitution as drawn up by the sub-committee appointed at the annual convention in accordance therewith. A meeting of the Grand Council representatives is to be held in Montreal on Saturday, the 9th inst., to discuss and adopt the constitution. It is hoped that the local branch will be represented by Rev. Father Cherrier, who will probably be in Montreal on the date mentioned.

THE anti-Catholic animus of the Free Press appears in the way it repeats a slander without the slightest allusion to the public refutation of that slander. In yesterday's issue the first editorial quotes the uneducated "corporal" as saying that Father Langevin applied the epithet "blackguards" to those of his congregation who did not share his views, in spite of the well-known fact that several respectable Catholics denied this assertion over their own signatures.

"Convince a fool against his will; He'll hold the same opinion still."

Our city readers are not, we are sure, forgetting the treat that is in store for them on the evening of Saturday, the 18th inst., when the usual concert in aid of the funds of the St. Vincent de Paul society will be given at the Bijou opera house. Preparations for the great event are rapidly progressing towards completion, and a number of Winnipeg's most popular entertainers have already been secured for the occasion. From what we know, we are able to state that the concert will be one of the best ever given under the auspices of the society, and those who have attended in past years know what this means. In addition to the excellence of the entertainment promised, there is the further incentive to attend in the excellent charities work which is to be assisted on every ground, therefore we are sure there will be a bumper house.

A TEMPERANCE SOCIETY

Organized in St. Mary's Parish on Sunday Afternoon Last.

Pursuant to announcement made from the pulpit, a well attended meeting of the parishioners of St. Mary's was held in the Brothers' school-house at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a temperance society, at which meeting the subject was well discussed, and the advisability of immediate action unanimously concurred in, resulting in the formation of a society and the election of the following named gentlemen as office bearers:

A. McGillis, President. John D. McDonald, Vice-President. T. J. Coyle, Secretary-Treasurer. A committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws to be submitted for adoption at a meeting of the society to be held next Sunday at the same hour and place. Twenty-four members signed the roll to begin with.

At the last regular meeting of the Branch 52, C.M.B.A., held Wednesday, Feb. 20th, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved that this Branch whilst submitting to the will of an all-wise providence extends to Bro. Bawlf our heartfelt sympathy in his bereavement; be it further

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to Bro. Bawlf, also to the NORTH WEST REVIEW for publication.

We much regret to announce the death on Saturday last, at St. Boniface hospital, of Mrs. Edouard Royal, mother of the Hon. Joseph Royal. The funeral took place on Monday from the residence of Mr. J. Tarenne, son-in-law of deceased, the body being first taken to the cathedral, where solemn requiem high mass was sung by the parish priest, Rev. Father Messier, with deacon and sub-deacon. The pall-bearers were: Judge Dubuc, Judge Prud'homme, Dr. Lambert, Messrs. S. A. D. Bertrand, J. Lecomte and F. Chenier. The chief mourners were Mr. H. Royal, son of ex-Lieut.-Governor Royal, and the sons of Mr. J. Turenne. After the service the remains were laid at rest in the cemetery. Hughes & Sons, undertakers, had charge of the funeral arrangements. The Review extends its heartfelt condolences to the family of the deceased.

Be Scrupulously Just.

The Toronto Globe Appeals to the Majority in Manitoba to Accept the Privy Council Decision and Act Justly Towards the Minority.

The Toronto Globe of Monday concluding a lengthy article on our school question, says:

"Our conclusion is that the question can be best decided, not by government or parliament, but by the people of Manitoba in the light of justice and of the best interests of the province. In the end we wish to arrive at a wise and just decision we believe they can derive material aid from the judgment of the privy council; not, we repeat, as infallible oracles, but as a question of right or wrong. We deprecate outside interference, having confidence that the majority of the people of Manitoba will be just, and will regard their very strength as an obligation to be scrupulously just, and they will be generous rather than in peril of falling short of complete justice, and we have confidence that they understand the conditions and requirements of their young and growing community better than we outsiders can possibly do."

Our Business Manager Honored.

His Former Fellow Employees Appreciate His Good Qualities and Make Him a Presentation.

On Monday evening a number of the Street Railway motormen and conductor, assembled at 40 Martha street, the residence of Mr. P. Klinkhammer, for the purpose of expressing the high estimation in which he is held by his former fellow employees, and also to present him with a mark of their esteem on his leaving the employ of the company to take the position of Business-Manager of this paper. The following address was read by Conductor S. Dingman:

Dear Sir,—We, the undersigned employees of the Winnipeg Electric Street Railway company, having heard of your intended departure to another sphere of labor desire to convey to you before we part our very best wishes for your success in life wherever you may cast your lot, to assure you of our appreciation of your many good qualities as a comrade and fellow citizen, and lastly to beg you to accept the accompanying token of our friendship and esteem.

The address was signed by a long string of names of the company's employees. At the conclusion of the reading the presentation referred to was made by Motorman William McDonald. The gift was a handsome diamond pin and a well-filled smoking case. Suitable recognition of the compliment was made and a lively time was spent, speeches and songs and games, with abundance of refreshments being the order of the day.
