

Mr. Roberts' New Volume.

IN DIVERS TONES

By
CHAS. G. D. ROBERTS,
Professor of English Literature in the University of King's College, Windsor, and author of "Orion."

PRICE $1.

Mr. Roberts has written a volume which will commend itself to every lover of literature. Although the themes he has selected are in many instances Canadian, his style and manner have all the breadth and finish of a cosmopolitan writer. These poems would command attention anywhere.

From the Canadian Methodist Magazine.

"The accomplished author of 'Orion' brings here another sheaf of poems worthy of his fame. This dainty volume is one of the most important contributions yet made to our native literature. We are struck with the variety of subjects and variety of metres. No Canadian poet, we think, has so caught the classic spirit in the treatment of classic themes. The 'Actaeon,' 'Pipes of Pan,' 'Off Pelorus,' and 'A Ballade of Calypso,' are not unworthy of Landor or Keats at their best. The latter poem has richness of rhythm and music of words like Swinburne's most melodious verse. In 'Cuthbert the Monk,' and in 'Notre Dame,' our poet has caught the very spirit of medievalism. We prefer, however, his Canadian ballads, in which he sketches with loving hand 'the long dikes of Westmoreland,' 'the green plains of Tantramar, the brown streams and flashing rapids of his native New Brunswick.' In his charming sonnets his keen sympathy with nature is strongly seen, and in several of his poems throbs a stirring patriotic pulse."
