

HONOURABLE PAT CARNEY, P.C., M.P.

- Economist and Regional Planner
- Born in Shanghai, China
- Graduate, University of British Columbia, M.A., B.A.
- Former member of the Economic Council of Canada
- Former President, Gemini North Ltd., an economic consulting firm
- Former economic journalist
- Member of the Canadian Institute of Planners, and the Association of Professional Economists of British Columbia
- First elected to Parliament in 1980 in Vancouver Centre
- Former Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources (responsible for dismantling the National Energy Program)
- Minister for International Trade since July 1986. Also responsible for the Canada-U.S. trade negotiations. Chairman of Cabinet Committee on Trade.