

3. If the Requested Party considers that the information contained in the request is not sufficient to enable the request to be dealt with, that Party may request that additional details be furnished.

4. A request shall be made in writing except that the Requested Party may accept an oral request in urgent situations. In any such situation, the request shall be confirmed in writing promptly thereafter unless the Requested Party agrees otherwise.

Article 11

Central Authorities and Channel of Communication

1. Central authorities shall transmit and receive all requests and responses thereto for the purposes of this Treaty. The central authority for Canada shall be the Minister of Justice or an official designated by that Minister; the Central authority for the Republic of Korea shall be the Minister of Justice or an official designated by that Minister.

2. The Central Authorities shall communicate through the diplomatic channel or directly with one another for the purposes of this Treaty.

Article 12

Limitation of Use and Confidentiality

1. The Requested Party may require, after consultation with the Requesting Party, that information or evidence furnished or the source of such information or evidence be kept confidential or be disclosed or used only subject to such terms and conditions as it may specify.

2. The Requesting Party shall not disclose or use information or evidence furnished for purposes other than those stated in the request without the prior consent of the central Authority of the Requested Party.
