

GENERAL AGREEMENT ON DEVELOPMENT CO-OPERATION BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA (hereinafter referred to as “Canada”) and THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA (hereinafter referred to as “South Africa”) (hereinafter also jointly referred to as the “Parties” and in the singular as a “Party”);

RECALLING the General Memorandum of Understanding on Development Co-operation between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of South Africa, signed on 13 December 1995;

WISHING to strengthen their cooperation as stated in the Joint Declaration of Intent on Strengthening Cooperation between the Republic of South Africa and Canada, of 4 November 2003; and

NOTING that Canada approved on 13 November 2003 a Country Development Programming Framework (hereinafter referred to as the “CDPF”), which will inform the Canadian International Development Agency’s (hereinafter referred to as “CIDA”) development co-operation between the Parties;

HEREBY AGREE as follows:

ARTICLE 1

Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement:

- (a) “Official Development Assistance” (hereinafter referred to as “ODA”) means official resource flows to South Africa provided by the Government of Canada or any official agency mandated by the Government of Canada with its main objective being the promotion of development and welfare;
- (b) “personnel” means persons who are not nationals or permanent residents of the Republic of South Africa and who are employed or contracted under the terms of this Agreement;
