RESPECTING:

Organization: Adoption of Routine Motions

At the debate, the question being put on the motion, it was agreed that the motion, which had been moved by Mr. Schroder, be adopted. The motion, however, was not adopted.

Miss MacDonald (Kingston and the Islands) moved that the motion be referred to the committee in charge of witness or a subject-matter different from that of the motion. It was agreed that the motion be referred to the steering committee and approved by the whole committee, not be permitted unless 48 hours notice is given, or unanimous consent is attained.

After debate, the question being put on the motion, it was agreed that the motion be referred to the committee in charge of witness or a subject-matter different from that of the motion. It was agreed that the motion be referred to the steering committee and approved by the whole committee, not be permitted unless 48 hours notice is given, or unanimous consent is attained.
