

RESOLUTION NO. 100

- (1) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (2) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (3) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (4) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (5) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (6) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (7) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (8) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (9) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (10) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (11) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (12) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (13) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (14) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (15) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (16) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (17) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (18) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (19) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.
- (20) The Council believes that the proposed changes are in the best interests of the State and should be approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard J. Buckholz