These, I think, are the particulars concerning this agreement which, as I have said, has been the subject of discussion for years with the province and with the Calgary Power Company in an endeavour to settle the dispute between them. After these negotiations they arrived at conclusions which are embodied in the agreement. The province of Alberta is satisfied with the terms of the agreement. If the bill passes this house a similar bill, with the agreement attached, will be introduced at the next session of the provincial legislature in order that the agreement may be confirmed. As I have said, this is the end of a long course of negotiation between the dominion and the province. I believe the terms are very favourable, and the Calgary Power Company is also satisfied.

Mr. MacNICOL: Before the minister sits down will he tell us what horse-power it is possible to obtain from each of the three power plants?

Mr. GLEN: At the present time?

Mr. MacNICOL: Yes.

Mr. GLEN: At the Horseshoe falls, 19,500 horse-power; at the Kananaskis, 11,600 horse-power, and at the Ghost site, 37,400 horse-power.

Mr. FRASER: The minister said the government was satisfied and the province of Alberta was satisfied with the agreement. Could he tell us if the Indians are satisfied with it? I ask that question because, while they seem to receive quite a lot of money, it is perhaps not more than they deserve. I do not believe the minister told us how many square miles are being taken away from the Indians.

Mr. GLEN: Of course we are on second reading just now. Perhaps in committee we might discuss the matter further.

Mr. FRASER: That is satisfactory.

Mr. CASTLEDEN: Can the minister tell us whether or not the Indians were consulted, and how many Indians there are on this Stony reserve who will be affected by the agreement? We should like to know also what the engineers have stated as the possible development of these falls. We are interested in finding out whether or not the rights of the Indians have been encroached upon, and whether the deals which have been made in their behalf have been equitable.

Mr. GLEN: May I suggest that the bill be given second reading, and when we are in committee these questions may be asked and answered? We are on second reading just now.

Mr. CASTLEDEN: I quite agree; but we are discussing the principle, and in agreements of this kind the house should be given some assurance that the rights and privileges of the Indians have been protected. However, I am quite willing to wait until we go into committee to have these questions answered.

Mr. T. L. CHURCH (Broadview): I should like to direct the attention of the minister to two or three features in connection with
