CROWN ASSETS DISPOSAL CORPORATION

Question No. 1,592—Mr. Cossitt:

At any time since questions were placed on the Order Paper by the hon. Member for Leeds-Grenville concerning Madam Claudette Nadeau of Crown Assets Disposal Corporation, have auditors or other persons searched files in the corporation looking for evidence of certain expenditures and payments made on behalf of Madam Nadeau, or Yvon Gariépy, Master of the Royal Canadian Mint and, if so (a) has it been found that any files are missing and, if so, what is a list of all such items (b) on whose instructions was a search made?

Hon. J.-J. Blais (Minister of Supply and Services): I am informed by Crown Assets Disposal Corporation as follows: the field audit examination of the corporation's records by the Auditor General was completed on July 15, 1980. Since then no auditors or external persons have searched corporation files. However, it is common internal practice to review financial documentation including expenditures for budget analysis purposes and for replies to parliamentary inquiries.

- (a) (i) No file has been reported missing.
 (ii) Not applicable.
 (b) If any such search is to occur, it is the vice-president, finance and administration who authorizes it as per normal procedure.
